Void Moon from 8:54 – 9:29 pm PST
Because the Moon acts as a giant mirror, reflecting whatever it's passing through, it is determined to be void when it stops making aspects (conversations) with planets on its transit from one zodiac sign to another. Some voids can last a minute to several hours, up to a day or more. It is ill-advised to launch or announce anything important under a void moon. Social Media posts tend to not get seen under void moons, and things that are launched under Void Moons often lack the momentum needed to carry them forward. These moons are quieter periods, often resembling a similar quality to water moons. They are great for tuning in, deepening our intuition as we will have closer contact with our inner worlds at this time.

It is best to avoid webinars, presentations, business partnerships, job interviews, and first dates during a VOC (Void of Course), Moon, as things are not what they appear during these periods.

Note: If you have already set something in motion, whether it be a launch, promotion, agreement, or other event or commitment and it falls on a Void Moon, it doesn't mean you have to cancel it, or that it will fail. It is things that are STARTED during/within a void that tend to not get the attention or the momentum needed to grow or be fully initiated.

Remember, things are not as they appear when viewed through the lens of a void, including people (especially new relationships), contracts, agreements, or offers.

Given the frequency of how often voids occur, we cannot a-void them ;), but we do need to take them into account and try to work in downtime as much as possible, or at least schedule/or automate important/mentally intensive actions out.

Because the Moon reflects whatever it is passing through when it is void, it isn't reflecting anything back to us, so these periods tend to make us feel more 'afloat', and also in more direct interaction with our own subconscious patterns, fears, emotions, and behaviors. This makes an excellent time to do some deep inner mindset work, or work behind the scenes on projects or goals (without pushing ourselves towards a deadline).

Waning Crescent in Libra at 9:30 pm PST

[Combined with Last Quarter Forecast]

- Create a dialogue with others to learn what perspectives you've lacked
- Let others help you and be willing to ask for help
- Write down ideas freely, especially any that come up in brainstorm sessions with other people
- Focus training on coaching skills, community building, networking
- Excellent time for interviews, collaborations and work with others
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy

If you're high energy: The Waning Crescent Moon in Libra brings a calm, balancing energy, making it an ideal time to focus on harmony, relationships, and wrapping up tasks with grace and diplomacy. This reflective, transitional phase emphasizes creating a sense of balance and clearing any unresolved issues before the New Moon arrives. Libra's influence encourages you to step back and review how well your business practices align with both your values and client relationships, promoting an atmosphere of cooperation and peace.

If you're low energy: Lean on your trusted friendships, family and partners if you're needing a recharge from burnout right now. Others may have ideas of how to help you, or just be present and give gentle encouragement when you're feeling stuck in a rut. This moon reminds us of how important our emotional relationships are for refilling our cups.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this period to focus on your brand visuals, strategy, and storytelling process. This moon favours any focus on creating polished, well-lit and high-quality lifestyle-oriented content, feeds and profiles.
- If you are selling your product or service, focus on the after, what is their happily ever after? How can you tell/demonstrate this story through your marketing?
- How does your business help your audience live their dream life? How does it help them become or be seen as the person they want to be?
- How does your imagery tell a story? Where does your ideal client fall in that story and how can you elevate them to the Hero, with you and your business in the supportive role?

- This is also a great time for online collaborations, virtual summits, IG Giveaways, etc.
- Focus on connecting with other experts in your field through interviews, professional spotlights and collaborations
- Client calls that are intended to be brainstorming sessions can produce fresh new ideas

Waning Crescent in Libra - All Day

MERCURY OPPOSITION URANUS

This transit can leave us feeling disoriented, scattered and racing ahead without necessarily knowing what we're moving after. Anxiety and nervousness can be an all-time high during this transit.

This is not a good time for making any important decisions or focusing on tasks that require a significant level of mental focus. We will feel more distracted and scattered during this time. Be extra careful during conversations that you take in the fullness of what the other person is saying before rushing to an answer.

Try not to take things too seriously during this time, and instead focus on light-hearted fun, as things will be moving quickly now and getting attached to anything, in particular, working out a certain way will spell frustration to us. Instead, pass the time on things that are not of any major importance until this transit passes.

Thursday, October 31

Void Moon from 9:56 – 10:29 am PST

Because the Moon acts as a giant mirror, reflecting whatever it's passing through, it is determined to be void when it stops making aspects (conversations) with planets on its transit from one zodiac sign to another. Some voids can last a minute to several hours, up to a day or more.

It is ill-advised to launch or announce anything important under a void moon. Social Media posts tend to not get seen under void moons, and things that are launched under Void Moons often lack the momentum needed to carry them forward. It is best to avoid webinars, presentations, business partnerships, job interviews, and first dates during a VOC (Void of Course), Moon, as things are not what they appear during these periods.

Note: If you have already set something in motion, whether it be a launch, promotion, agreement, or other event or commitment and it falls on a Void Moon, it doesn't mean you have to cancel it, or that it will fail. It is things that are STARTED during/within a void that tend to not get the attention or the momentum needed to grow or be fully initiated.

Remember, things are not as they appear when viewed through the lens of a void, including people (especially new relationships), contracts, agreements, or offers.

Given the frequency of how often voids occur, we cannot a-void them ;), but we do need to take them into account and try to work in downtime as much as possible, or at least schedule/or automate important/mentally intensive actions out.

This makes an excellent time to do some deep inner mindset work, or work behind the scenes on projects or goals (without pushing ourselves towards a deadline).

Waning Crescent in Scorpio begins at 10:30 am PST

[Combined with New Moon Phase]

MERCURY TRINE NEPTUNE

Mercury rules our thinking and Neptune is the place of dreams and escape. We won't be feeling inclined to dive deeply into mental or detailed topics today, so this may not feel productive in the traditional sense, however, it can bring about a lot of intuitive insights, hits, and the opportunity to manifest dreams into reality through making them conscious and alive inside of you.

We may want to play with intuitive tools today, talk with others about our dreams, write or channel our insights and visions out, or tap into the flow that moves you beyond your external motivations.

We will feel more sensitive and emotionally attuned during this transit, we won't find focus easy here, but maybe it's just the right day for you to take a mental vacation and let yourself dream and explore what's possible without a rigid timeline, or structure.

MARS OPPOSITION PLUTO

The power to get things done is present in this aspect and if we're smart, we will recognize just how much willpower is necessary to push a project forward. The power to move mountains is available for us more so now through us asking for help outside of ourselves. No person is an island and if we can put our pride aside, we're more likely to get exactly the help we need.

New Moon in Scorpio 9° at 5:46 am PST

[Combined with Waning Crescent Phase]

- Let go and release anything that is draining you of your resources, happiness or sanity in your business and life, even if it's painful to do so
- Exorcise toxic situations and destructive habits from our life so we can create long-needed change and build something new moving forward
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy
- New Moon: Low energy, purging and planting seeds, new beginnings

As the New Moon in Scorpio begins a new cycle, there is a powerful kite aspect in the sky that will usher in an opportunity to do deep emotional work and regain personal and creative power. Mars will be in exact opposition to Pluto, while Neptune and Mercury complete the kite shape on both sides. Our willingness to bridge the space between our mind, emotions, and spirit will be palpable right now, like a portal is opening inside of us, leading us straight to the divine.

The energy of this moon cycle is centered on being present with our creative process so that we can allow what wants to come through to do so without trying to wrestle it into looking the way we think it should. This moon is inviting us to be messy with our emotions so that we are giving ourselves ample space to be who we are and feel what we feel. When we do this, we open deeper creative channels in us, resulting in more aligned decisions and more authenticity in our content and messaging

When we're honest about our desires, we're in a better place to take action on things that will make a big difference. We can more confidently go for the things we want and speak with clarity about what we're birthing into the world through our business.

Social Media Topics & Clients:

- Reveal your secrets, talk about the taboos, talk about something painful that ultimately led to transformation, be transparent, have difficult conversations. Stay away from the superficial. They'll thank you for it.
- Water moons are excellent for client calls that dive deep into emotions. Be prepared to hold space for others as they explore new caverns of their inner world and come face to face with fears.

- Our clients and audiences need to hear from us that fears cannot kill us if we face them head-on.
- Because of how mysterious and private Scorpio Moons can be though, don't be surprised if you do not hear much from others about your impact on them. Trust that you're making an impact anyways.

MERCURY TRINE MARS

If you've needed to tackle some mentally difficult problem, this transit gives you the grit and strategic thinking in order to find solutions. You might also feel the need to speak your truth and mind on matters where misinformation is being spread.

Use facts and information as your weapons to fight battles worth fighting and use that to build your expertise and credibility in your industry. Creating content in bulk can also be a great use of this energy and writing anything in which you need to persuade and educate.

MERCURY SEXTILE PLUTO

Our inner detective will be activated during this transit with Pluto acting like a magnifying glass on any information we come across in our research or analysis.

The positive expression of this energy is in how intensely it can gift our focus for our projects, getting things done, and creating brilliant strategies. Our understanding of human desire and behavior is highlighted with Pluto at play in this aspect, making our minds deeply tuned to the unconscious patterns we see in our audience.

With this understanding, we can use this energy to create masterful works of art in the form of offerings that bring about real transformations and deep satisfaction for our people. We know their problems, we know their desires and we know how to help them better their lives.

Void Moon from 9:50 – 10:19 pm PST

Because the Moon acts as a giant mirror, reflecting whatever it's passing through, it is determined to be void when it stops making aspects (conversations) with planets on its transit from one zodiac sign to another. Some voids can last a minute to several hours, up to a day or more.

It is ill-advised to launch or announce anything important under a void moon. Social Media posts tend to not get seen under void moons, and things that are launched under Void Moons often lack the momentum needed to carry them forward. These moons are quieter periods, often resembling a similar quality to water moons. They are great for tuning in, deepening our intuition as we will have closer contact with our inner worlds at this time.

It is best to avoid webinars, presentations, business partnerships, job interviews, and first dates during a VOC (Void of Course), Moon, as things are not what they appear during these periods.

Note: If you have already set something in motion, whether it be a launch, promotion, agreement, or other event or commitment and it falls on a Void Moon, it doesn't mean you have to cancel it, or that it will fail. It is things that are STARTED during/within a void that tend to not get the attention or the momentum needed to grow or be fully initiated.

New Moon in Sagittarius at 10:20 pm PST

- Open your mind to see more possibilities and incorporate a new medium that will help you gain exposure for your greatest creations
- Create a plan and take action on it within the next 24-36 hours in order to create momentum that will accelerate your work during Capricorn Moon
- Reach for big goals and see the broader vision of your work
- Take risks that propel you out of your comfort zone
- New Moon: Low energy, purging and planting seeds, new beginnings

If you're high energy/in a work mood: The New Moon in Sagittarius brings an exciting, expansive energy, perfect for setting bold intentions and embracing new possibilities in your business. Sagittarius is a sign of exploration, optimism, and vision, making this New Moon phase a powerful time to look beyond current limitations and plan for the big picture. This is the ideal moment to set intentions focused on growth, learning, and adventure, as Sagittarius encourages you to aim high and trust that bold moves can yield incredible results.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: Take this moon to have fun and invite more adventurous play into your life. Put on some music and invite in all the passion and focus that will help you bring your projects home. Or if working just isn't going to happen, free yourself from responsibility and focus on what makes you happy.

Social Media & Clients:

- Illustrate the benefits of your offer through the perspective of freedom, knowledge, and personal growth.
- If your content helps them to become certified, to learn a new method, is hands-on, this is a great time to share it/teach it/show it.
- Schedule any clients now that need a pick me up, pep talk, inspiration
Dreaming big is the best focus for content with this moon
- Sagittarius is also interested in personal and professional freedom, so emphasizing how your offerings will help your clients achieve that can be especially lucrative
- The strong influence here is on developing self-awareness, creating abundant mindsets and pushing beyond one's previous limits

This transit can feel very playful, fun, adventurous, and celebratory. It is important to keep track of your spending during this time if you don't have much to part with as we will be more inclined to spread the love around and indulge. We may not have as much ability to focus on work during this time as we would much rather be out playing.

Try to go lightly on yourself during this transit, if you can, as it does open the opportunities for us to give ourselves a bit of a break, especially if you've been working steadfastly on something. We won't really want to put our full selves into what we are working on, which can lead to a lack of quality in our work, so it's important if possible to not pile too many important things on your plate during this transit. This a great period for socializing, love, connections, and networking. Fortunately, this falls on a weekend for most, so giving yourself a break isn't such a challenge.

VENUS TRINE CHIRON

The greatest flow of abundance that can come through you right now is somehow tied to the story of your brokenness and healing. Having someone to relate to (Venus) and hearing other stories like your own is a powerful way to build a community around your business and create real trust. So that the people who buy from you trust your expertise and experience because you openly shared it with them. That creates a healing bond that you can feel with your people so strongly.

New Moon in Sagittarius - All Day

SUN TRINE SATURN

Using self-control and discipline to get things done is the essence of this aspect. You have all the power inside of you to tie up loose ends, organize your resources, and create a sound plan for how you're going to achieve lasting results. This influence may at times feel mundane and boring, but it's intended to give you more endurance and vitality when it comes to your work. Take advantage of this one and schedule a distraction-less work session ahead of time. You may find that you see more clearly the rewards of your efforts at this time.

Mars in Leo (Pre-Retrograde Shadow)

November 3, 2024, 8:10pm – December 6, 2024, 3:32pm

0°00' - 6°10'

Here we have entered the pre-retrograde shadow of the coming Mars Retrograde in Cancer-Leo. This is a nudge to let you know that beginning December 6th, 2024 you're going to be experiencing a massive energy slow-down. So if you have projects in the works, this is the best time to wrap them up before then.

As we prepare for this coming Mars Retrograde, it's helpful to notice where Mars is transiting now in your chart, the shadow period tends to operate as a preview of what's to come in terms of frustration, potential disagreements, or 'wars'. In this case, the 'war' will feel connected with our creative ability, our sense of adventure, play, and Joie de vie with its movement through Leo, and also surrounding more personal aspects (family dynamics, our home, real estate, relationships) with its movement through Cancer. We may find ourselves more triggered by people's comments or actions than usual, especially in terms of family or those we are close to, and their actions or words may hit us more personally than usual. It's also important to note that this is also something that others may experience from you.

In terms of creative projects, it's important to focus more on wrapping up projects, rather than starting new ones, even if we feel very positive about them (unless you're comfortable with having to re-do them, revisit them, or otherwise abandon them when Mars Rx hits).

While we are not yet in retrograde, the shadow is here to provide a brief introduction to these issues so that we are not taken off guard. However, as we get closer to the upcoming Mars Retrograde, Mars will make one last aspect with the Sun (See Sun Trine Mars on November 25-28) where we will be feeling unnaturally optimistic, or that things are flowing particularly well. This is a trap (insert laugh emoji here). It's a trick of Mars before we enter the Retrograde which will be likely one of the first things to trip you up when Mars does Rx because it will seem to come 'out of nowhere' and often makes us feel 'under attack' by life.

This isn't a sign that what you were doing was off or needs to be redone, however, it could likely benefit from some revision or revisiting to see what you missed or what has been lacking in your personal attention and motivation on an internal level.

Once Mars goes direct you'll be free to pick up where you left off, with a bit more depth, understanding, and a newfound appreciation for the work you've invested.

Ongoing Transits

SUN IN SCORPIO

October 22, 2024, 3:15pm – November 21, 2024, 11:56am

Scorpio Focus: Endings, transformation, secrets, healing, wounds, inheritances, debt, death, taboos, other people's money, resources attained through transformation and integration, finances attained through helping others, doing the work, revealing, mystical experiences, spiritual work/mediumship, addressing pain points and wounds head-on, full disclosure, secret clubs, exclusivity, VIP, limited edition, obsessions, talking about the skeletons in the closet.

The Sun rules our physical vitality and natural energy flow, and in this case, it highlights a specific area of our lives and businesses where we (and our community) will feel naturally drawn. So it only makes sense to use it for goal setting and theming our marketing out in one-month cycles.

The Sun first moves into the sign and then within a short period, we have the Moon join the Sun aligning our emotions with our physical vitality beginning the one-month lunar cycle.

Where the Moon sets the stage for task planning, and emotional energy (both mental and how we're feeling) on a daily level, the Sun sets the stage for the one-month container that we're working within. The Sun is the Macro while the Moon rules the Micro (the daily tasks that will help you get there).

In this case with the Sun moving into Scorpio we are willing to address our challenges, pains, and struggles directly, and so is our community. This is a great time to sell products, services, and experiences that address the root of difficult problems, that are focused on healing, transformation, and overcoming obstacles. Empowerment is the name of the game and your community will be more excited and interested in doing deeper work at this time.

This is the best time to speak to your market head-on about their issues (and your own) without beating around the bush. This can be a time for us to pull back the curtain so to speak and let them into our world, showing our imperfections and how those scars have made us stronger, as well as talking about their own and channeling that energy into medicine in your offers.

During this transit, we will be drawn to our inner world, to our intuition, and to spiritual and metaphysical teachings and journeys. Scorpio holds the veil between worlds, between life and death, dark and light, between wound and healing. It is an invitation to go more deeply into our water and intuitive side and see what messages we can find. If you have been craving a realness, to be more in tune, and connected with yourself and the spirit world this is the perfect transit to dive in and allow it to take you where you feel most drawn.

VENUS IN SAGITTARIUS

October 17, 2024, 12:29 pm – November 11, 2024, 10:25 am

Venus influences love and money, through our experience of this transit there is an increase in our desire for adventurous and demonstrative love and affection. We are inspired by taking risks, having a good time, extravagance, and feeling more fluid and open to new experiences. We want more experiences, and growth and are willing to test the waters a lot more than usual. This also applies when it comes to how we spend our money, and where we are investing it. We want to use our funds for more experiential, spiritual, philosophical, and growth-based focuses.

Pluto Direct in Capricorn

October 11, 2024, 5:32 pm – November 19, 2024, 12:29 pm

29°38' - 29°59'

Pluto will have its final stint in Capricorn before finally making the plunge into Aquarius for good this year. Here we will see Pluto In Capricorn on its last legs from October 11 - November 19, 2024, before making its final steps into Aquarius, not to return to Capricorn again until 2254. As it completes its 20-year mission in Capricorn over the course of the next several months, we will likely see significant changes and transformations in all the areas that Capricorn rules such as governments, rules, foundations, regulations, currencies, economies, resources, money, and legacies. This will not be a simple rebuilding or redesigning, the change will come through power struggles, the use of fear for control, uncovering the deep subconscious, and a willingness to surrender or risk great loss for a sense of purpose and meaning.

Pluto is here to help us transform ourselves, find our purpose, and remind us that freedom should never be taken for granted. We may find great conspiracies, abuses of power, and a need to stand up for rights (as rules and laws, when in the hands of the corrupt, can be used as coercive measures by those wishing to gain more power and control). This is a time when we are reminded of what's important to us, and that we cannot remain complacent about the things that are of real value. If it feels like your business, your life, and your place in the world are hitting a great transition point, it is, now is the time to stand strong for what's important to you and to deeply inquire about what you are willing to give up, sacrifice or surrender to live a life of real meaning and significance.

A special note on the US, with this also occupying the far reaches of the US Pluto Return: This window also marks the continuation of the Pluto return for the US triggering changes in government, finance, currency, health care, natural resources, industry, and the core foundations of the country.

I would expect to see a change in currency, government formation, and major foundational changes to the country itself that will impact how the US operates, and how other countries interact with the US.

There are two things that may occur during this period, one is that the US shifts to no longer becoming a world superpower and is surpassed by another country, or it completely re-structures and enters a second re-birth.

Jupiter Retrograde in Gemini

October 9, 2024, 12:05am – December 31, 2024, 10:59pm

October 9, 2024 - February 4, 2025

21°20' - 11°16'

Here we may see the speculation, rapidly shifting markets, and information overload slow down a bit. Like any retrograde, the purpose is to review, revise, and re-integrate the information, choices, directions, and results we've encountered, committed to, and explored while the planet was direct. You are being invited here to explore the themes, lessons, and choices you've made and encountered between July 15, 2024, and October 9th, 2024, especially around abundance, support, ideas, information, perspectives, communications, relationships with siblings, technology you've adopted, content you've written, programs you've offered and the direction you want to go in your marketing.

This review period can feel like the results we seek, and the actions we take are experiencing a delay, or that something feels 'off'. It is because it is a period of analysis so that you can revise, retarget, redirect, and reprocess what's necessary for you so that you can move forward with clarity.

It's likely the past few months have felt extremely busy, and catching your breath or having space to think, pause, or contemplate was likely in short supply. Use this period to recalibrate your nervous system, feed and nourish yourself, and find ways to feel 'safe' inside of your own being, even if it means putting social media blockers on your phone, turning your phone off at night, or turning off notifications.

Think about taking a mini social media and news vacation, so that you can hear your own voice again. Find out what's really important to you, what your interests are, and what excites you, and spend some time diving into that, just for the sake of it.

Here we are actually processing a great deal of data, so if you don't have answers yet, or you don't know what it all means or where to go from here, notice that's ok for right now.

You don't need to know. Just let yourself stay curious as to what may be next and be open to receiving inner nudges on those next steps.

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn

September 1, 2024, 10:58pm – October 11, 2024, 5:31pm

29°59' - 29°38'

Pluto is retrograde for one last rendezvous in Capricorn, before leaving it for good and remaining in Aquarius until 2043. Pluto will not transit Capricorn again in our lifetime, with its next transit through the sign of the goat occurring in the year 2254. So it's clear to see that this is the end of an era, and with it, we will be witnessing the destruction of the old, to prepare and make way for the new with Aquarius - which outside of this short jaunt back into Capricorn, will last for the next 20 years (2024 - 2044). Pluto forms and tears down empires, it rules dynasties, governments, and republics, and since its entrance into Capricorn in 2008 we have witnessed a concentration of power, collaborations between private corporate entities and government, the formation of new seats of power, increasing regulation and during its retrograde back into Sagittarius before fully entering Capricorn in 2008/2009 we saw the 2008 stock market and housing crash.

With Pluto's retrograde, we may see a temporary relief of governmental restrictions that have been in place since 2020, and a potential stagnation of inflation and marketing prices but this will return again once Pluto goes direct in October and we wrap up its journey in Capricorn this year.

This is the time to pull out your Swiss army knife and learn to use what you have well, assess your own needs, put on your own oxygen mask, and take advantage of this pause to re-evaluate what's needed for you at this time. This is a time to explore our fears, and beliefs and work with what is ending and changing in your life at this time. It may not be easy but it is the path forward and will help you to locate your new power center within you and expand your resources and skills in what you do have control over.

This is a good time to meet any financial, health, and foundational fears you have in your life or business, and notice what is no longer working for you. The more we attempt to hold on tightly to things that are clearly changing, the more we may find this period to be a struggle.

Look for new ways to bring in resources that can be more developed once Pluto goes direct in October. Through endings and transformation come new beginnings, and new perspectives.

I would expect the US to see some major restructuring, political upheaval or shifts, and changes to its health care, finances, and currencies during this time, as this retrograde is still activating the US Pluto return at 27 degrees Capricorn. Not limited to the US alone as this transit is worldwide, many countries may undergo changes around their currency, and losses due to rampant inflation (with some countries bearing it better than others) making the need to become more self-sufficient and not rely on governments, especially with the scandals that have been revealed since 2020. We may see a new currency, new bids for power, and secret deals emerge as a result of this restructuring, as well as changes in relationships between countries and big business as a result, with much to be seen more fully after October 11th.

Uranus Retrograde in Taurus

September 1, 2024, 8:18am – December 31, 2024, 10:59pm

27° 15' - 23° 15'

look at areas of focus/events that occurred between May 16, 2024 - September 1, 2024, to give you insight into what area of life this retrograde will be felt for you

Uranus rules rebellion, war, change, revolution, freedom, confronting fear, speaking our truth. It is 'the great awakener'. This retrograde highlights what doesn't feel aligned and where you're sabotaging and holding yourself back. Be honest about who you are and what you want. Go with your hunches/intuition. Uranus helps to clarify a new direction. Embrace change and 'not knowing'. This period often forces us to deal with our dark side, parts of ourselves that don't align with our values. But if you allow this to move through you when Uranus moves direct you will have the opportunity to make a massive change.

Watch out for: Following formulas, systems, and the 'norm'. Systems and structures can tend to feel suffocating at this time. Be careful to not interpret this as a sign that you're not capable or that you've made a poor choice. Personal changes may feel slow or difficult at this time. And the need to feel independent and rebel may be felt strongly right now. Uranus Retrograde can mean massive changes often in areas we weren't expecting or desiring, but it is for your long-term benefit. The truth will set you free. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, see your chart and the current transits and locate what house Uranus Transit falls under.

Chiron Retrograde in Aries

July 26, 2024 - December 29, 2024

23° - 19°

With Chiron turning retrograde in Aries, we are healing our relationship with all things Aries. From violence in the shadow to assertive action in the light, the energies of Aries are all coming to the fore during this time, requiring our attention to heal any distortions or misdirected lines of energy. In particular, we are examining any wounds we have around taking action, a hallmark of Aries.

During this time, our ability to stand up for ourselves is coming into question, our existential courage. Also known as our will to exist, existential courage is a pronouncement of being, a statement of life.

If you think back to recent times, has there been a moment where you wanted to act but did not? A time when you were going to stand up for yourself, but you held back? We all have these moments and perhaps less important than our response at the time is how we make meaning and move forward after the fact. As Chiron retrogrades, we continue to gain visibility into these moments of vulnerability while learning about ourselves. We continue to make sense of the healing story of our lives.

When we have existential courage, we are fearless, acting from a space of original boldness. When we are searching for existential courage, perhaps the path is not as clear. The paradoxical truth is that despite what we think, we always have the courage that the moment requires of us, but we may not always be dialed into its frequency.

If we think of consciousness like a radio dial, perhaps we are on a different station right when the moment comes. In this period of time, we are healing our ability to switch back to the other station, the station that supports growth, evolution, and development. As we perfect and grow this ability, we come into a deeper resonance with any healing that needs to take place.

Not only do we identify the misguided assumptions that have been holding us back, but we transform them into energetic assets that do not weigh us down. On the contrary, they lift us up. No longer do we carry energetic weight around with us. Our only choice is to stand up for ourselves and if we can get to this space during this Chiron retrograde, we will have achieved a significant milestone.

NOTE: It's important to be aware at this time, as Chiron is the wounded healer, and represents the inner wound we all carry, we need to be mindful that we don't direct violence or harm at ourselves (with this being retrograde), that we instead focus on positive internal action to help ourselves overcome our wounds and pain.

Often when it comes to trauma the victim, will internalize the reason for the trauma as being because of something they did, said, or are. When Chiron goes retrograde and in Aries nonetheless we may find more trauma coming up, especially in areas where we may need to defend or protect ourselves, or triggering our trauma responses. It is helpful to schedule in self-care, therapy, journaling, or things that help YOU to feel like you're taking an active stance towards your own healing.

Neptune Retrograde in Pisces

July 2, 2024, 3:40am – December 7, 2024, 3:42pm

29° - 27°

Each year, Neptune retrogrades for approximately 5 months.

Neptune rules both sleeping and waking dreams, imagination, fantasies, optimism, and idealism (in life and romance). Review your opinions, values, and belief systems, and listen to your gut. Work with the spiritual and mystical while keeping yourself grounded. Dreams, yoga, meditation, astrology, tarot, and deep inquiry can be very healing at this time. Contemplate your spirituality and belief systems. Focus on your creativity and allow what wants to come through to do so, unhindered. Let go of anything that feels heavy.

Watch out for - unrealistic or fluffy thinking, seeing people, and circumstances as you want to see them rather than as they are. Overindulgence in numbing agents. Emotions may run high or over the top. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, check the current transits in your chart and see what house Neptune is moving through for you.

Saturn Retrograde in Pisces

JUNE 29, 2024 - NOVEMBER 15, 2024

19°25'-12°41'

Saturn has turned retrograde in the sign of Pisces, signaling a time of review for all things hard, worthwhile, and Pisces. It is a full review of the way Saturn has been operating in our lives, looking particularly closely at the Piscean dream world, and the home of our deepest psychology, unconscious, dream world, and traumas.

This is an opportunity to explore what has felt hard and challenging for you and what you have been pushing back on inside yourself. We may find that at this time it is harder to commit and follow through on projects and goals, as we are meant to re-evaluate our commitments before making new ones or recommitting to our current path.

Use this period to evaluate your progress, your responsibilities, and whether you are taking on more than your share. What does your mental load look like? What fears have you been experiencing and can you get some support to explore them, or address them head-on so that they don't have such a hold over you? Your dreams are within grasp and this retrograde period is a rest stop for you in between. What can't you do anymore? What needs to change about your goals, your path, or your pressures?

Saturn often operates through internalized pressure and expectations, that psychological father-type figure waving their finger and shaming us, however, if we can recognize that it is us waving the finger and that maybe our expectations are not necessarily outlining a path to our own happiness or even maybe the best way to get there, we can thank ourselves for holding down the fort, but maybe look to changing the guard, or re-evaluating our strategies and where we need to send our soldiers moving forward.

What are you making progress on? Where do you feel halted, unsupported, overworked, or that you're banging your head against a wall? This is a great time to make some changes and then look to commit to new projects, new methods, or recommit to current ones in November. Know that it's okay and even healthy to have re-evaluation periods. This can also be a time when you throw some stuff at the wall to see what sticks and what doesn't so that you can gather intel for your new strategy into 2025.

A note on world events:

Globally with the lockdowns in effect since 2020, we have seen repeatedly that when Saturn goes retrograde, lockdowns and governmental restrictions are temporarily rescinded. It is likely we will see a temporary reprisal of governmental restrictions from now until November 11th, with a sharp return in restrictions afterward, however, the previous retrogrades were in the sign of Aquarius (the people/the public), and Capricorn (the government, buildings, world infrastructure), whereas this Saturn Retrograde will take place in Pisces, so it is likely the restrictions and release of restrictions will look differently, in this case, it may be in policing what can be said online, freedom of speech (and thought), and an uptick in programs directed to guide public belief and perspectives, as well as potentially reproductive rights (Pisces rules the 12th house of birth/gestation), and possible restrictions around water (Pisces), citing environmental concerns.

Jupiter in Gemini

May 25, 2024, 4:15 pm – October 9, 2024, 12:04 am

May 25, 2024 - October 9, 2024

October 9, 2024 - February 4, 2025 (Retrograde)

February 4, 2025 - June 9, 2025

Jupiter is in exile in Gemini (opposite sign of its home sign)

Be prepared for a year's worth of ADHD rabbit holes. Gemini is the information seeker, it represents media, research, journalism, writing, communication, networking, the gathering of data, technology and how we relate, teaching, content,

Jupiter rules expansion and growth of whatever it encounters or moves through, in this case, the themes of Gemini rule information processing, superficial communication, short-term thinking, data processing, information, media, and news, not necessarily concerned with accuracy, but rather large scale output, it can also rule gossip. I would predict with this transit we see rapid expansion of AI, ChatGPT, and other forms of machine learning intelligence as well as extreme production, and infiltration with AI written content, media, and news. With Neptune still in Pisces, ever inching closer to its final critical degree, our ability to decipher what is real, what is factual, and what we see before our very eyes will continue to become more difficult.

Is that photo real? Is that video real? Has it been edited? Has it been generated? Is that actually what happened?

The ability to ascertain facts, truth, and justice will be limited during this time, giving us a sense of the 'Wild West' when it comes to information (and information warfare), and feeling like we are drowning in too much information. An example of this is through 2020 and into 2021 when we had the North Node in Gemini the amount of news media and information flying at us from every waking moment is likely a good indicator of what we may experience at this time. There is a deep craving for 'The Truth' with Jupiter, however, with the collective unconscious this will be difficult, which is why it will be more important for you than ever to connect the dots and decide what YOU believe. We may also find the release of a lot more information relative to the events of the past 3 years since the North Node transited Gemini in 2020-2021.

Gemini can absorb information at a rapid rate, and it will have the help of Jupiter during this transit making information expand by leaps and bounds. It will make it difficult to focus and stay focused on one thing, to do deeper meaningful work, and to keep control over our own mental space and mental peace.

Shiny object syndrome will be rampant and the news and media will be changing faster than we can snap our fingers, as will the technological advances.

Here it is important to remind ourselves, that just because something is new, or going to 'change the game' doesn't mean you need it, or that you need to be an early adopter of it.

There will be rampant FOMO flying around for every new technology and social media platform change, and if you are feeling pulled in multiple directions on what to focus on in your business, you would do well to put your head down and spend the time researching, digesting and focusing on what makes you you, what makes your work unique and what you absolutely need to focus on to keep things running without your head spinning off its center.

This is great for idea generation, of which we will not be in short supply but it's also crazy-making if you already struggle with this issue, and crave more ability to follow through and make things happen.

We will be more prone to jump from thing to thing, to seek the latest information, the newest edition, and desire to get 'all the information' before we get started. However, when you realize that's just not possible and you risk losing an entire year to rabbit-holing stuff you won't remember 3 weeks from now, it really does help to remind yourself of that, that what's really important about what's changing or shifting now will still be the case 6, 12, 18, or 24 months from now.

It's best to let the dust settle and see what 'stays' before committing to the next 'big thing'.

Remember 'Threads' from Facebook? No one still knows 'what that is' or how exactly to use it for anything other than nonsensical streams of consciousness..that's the risk of Jupiter in Gemini when untethered.

We risk losing the meaningful for the 'exciting' which often turns out to be a bunch of hot air, and there promises to be a lot of 'hot air' this year.

If you manage to stay in your lane and use this energy for innovation in what you're ALREADY doing, rather than needing to 'start from scratch' or 'rethink everything' you'll be ahead of 99% of the population once this is over.

If you are already really sensitive to Mercury retrogrades (Mercury rules Gemini) or are challenged by over-thinking anxiety, or your nervous system is shot from burnout or the insanity of the past 3+ years, you'll find this period can amplify your already very sensitive nervous system. Gemini unfortunately has the impact of making everything feel URGENT and important and vital, and you must ACT NOW, right AWAY, or THIS IS IT.

Be careful about jumping to conclusions, don't let someone else's fire alarm become yours, and focus extra special attention on supporting your nervous system and getting yourself out of fight or flight.

This period will move rapidly, with us feeling 'busier' than usual, and often finding time, days, weeks, or periods blend into each other. What feels super important one day, will be forgotten the next, and what drives our anxiety may in fact be more related to the anxious energy we're picking up around us, rather than there being 'something wrong', or something that 'could go wrong'.

From a market perspective, this period can lead to wild speculation, and rapidly shifting markets, with pricing all over the place. No one knows wtf is going on, and so anxiety (ruled by Gemini) tends to take over, leading to poor decision-making. This period may also see wild pricing in consumer products as well, as Gemini rules commerce, markets, and speculation, and Jupiter rules risk-taking, and inflation.

If you sell 'information', 'philosophy' or perspectives this can be a highly profitable period if you are leveraging the themes that the market is interested in. What's in the news (not from a 'trendy' next big thing perspective, but what's on the minds of everyone? Can you share information about that, offer a service connected to it, have a system or blueprint or solution to solve it? Especially if it gives immediate results? Gold.

Pluto Retrograde in Aquarius (May 2, 2024 - September 1, 2024)

02°06' - 00°00'

Pluto will be in Aquarius from:

March 23, 2023 - June 11, 2023,

January 20, 2024 - September 1, 2024,

November 19, 2024 - March 8, 2043.

The last time that Pluto retrograded at 0 degrees Aquarius, outside of two short stints this year and last year, was May 1, 1777 - August 20, 1778, which saw France fighting back against the British Empire, the formation of treaties between France and the US, and France becoming a supplier to the US of military supplies. This marked an important era in the birth of the United States and also saw some of the bloodiest battles in the American Revolutionary War.

Something is being birthed right now and as a collective, we're going through labor pains. In terms of governmental overreach, we may see some leniency at this time as Pluto is retrograde alongside Saturn, this lack of restriction will likely carry us until mid-November before things gear up again.

For the first couple of months of this retrograde, we will also see Jupiter trining Pluto at the beginning, and towards the end, we'll see Jupiter Squaring Saturn which will amplify the shifts we're seeing, this may trigger some amplification of spending without boundaries, especially on more survival-based aspects of our lives, the need to buck the system and focus on securing our own stability. This may also show up as an increase in legal action against the governments regarding previous lockdown measures, civil rights, and restrictions, as well as its use (and control) over AI technologies, data mining, privacy issues, the use of technology both by government and big business as well as surveillance, and war.

During this time we may feel a temporary relief from our fears as we get a little bit of a break, at least psychologically. But while this may seem like a respite, it actually is an opportunity for deeper introspection on where we're going as a collective and what is within your control moving forward. What is important to you in terms of maintaining your wealth and longer-term security? What are your digital assets? How are you using them, protecting them, securing them?

Uranus Retrograde (January 27 - September 1, 2024)

19°05 - 27°15 TAURUS.

Uranus will remain direct in Taurus from now until September 1, 2024. When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in. This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 28, 2023, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change. It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-term-ness within financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did.

Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus. Taurus loves its food, its home, its friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes) What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months to a year? Have you had financial sources dry up, or change? Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself? How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus, with a brief sojourn into Gemini (in 2025) until April 2026. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post W/W2 when new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability of the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon the remainder of its 7-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2026 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

North Node in Aries (July 12 - December 31, 2023)

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Taurus and the South Node transited Scorpio.

This showed a significant period of growth for home-based and online businesses, as well as home education, and bringing luxurious experiences into our homes from home decor, home improvements, comfort foods, products, and beauty services. We also witnessed a shift in the markets and currencies with food (Taurus), Gas, and Oil (Scorpio) increasing in cost and access.

This was an 18-month cycle of trying to stabilize and hold on to what we have, without making significant changes, as Taurus & Scorpio are fixed signs that don't appreciate change. The South Node movement through Scorpio which naturally rules the 8th house may have represented financial losses, scams, and increased debts, with even big businesses experiencing shareholder losses, including Target, Walmart, and Disney.

The movement of the North Node into Aries, and the South Node into Libra will usher in new significant changes. With the movement from fixed signs (Taurus-Scorpio) into Cardinal Signs (Aries-Libra), we will find ourselves being forced either through desire or circumstance to take big action and initiate new things, grabbing life by the steering wheel.

The next 18 months will be a period of innovation, as Cardinal Cycles are here to bring about the new change, and with it occurring in the signs of Aries-Libra, we will find that it may be due to a need to ensure our own survival whether that is in business, or for basic needs.

This is a time for working for yourself, trusting in your own ability, and refining your skills, and marks a movement away from people pleasing, partnerships, and collaborations. You may find that you have to defend your work or fend off theft or copyright issues during this transit and that the support to protect yourself legally or receive justice is lacking (South Node Libra). We will have an unsettled feeling (met with reality) that fairness and justice seem to be missing during this period, and this can in some ways reflect a period of 'acts of war', whether that is directly through competitors, having your reputation or assets under attack, or experiencing underhandedness.

This will also be reflected in our world with it appearing that people, government, institutions, etc are 'getting away with murder'. Justice will prevail, but it will be delayed and we may not see the resolution to some of these matters until much, much later. It is better to not focus on seeking salvation through legal routes, or being saved by others during this time and instead take measures to protect yourself, and your work and meet your own needs as necessary.

The last times this cycle took place on the Aries-Libra axis were 1911 - 1913, 1930-1932, 1949 - 1950, 1967 - 1969, 1986 - 1987, and 2004 - 2006.

To draw from the historical record, specifically the transit from 1930 - 1932 occurred off the back of the 1929 Stock Market Crash (North Node Taurus - South Node Scorpio) which echoed the 2021- 2023 transit of the North Node's movement through Taurus before entering Aries, with Taurus representing the financial system and the Earth (Soil/Agriculture). During this time we also saw severe droughts (Taurus) in the US, creating the Dust Bowl with many farmers and families needing to leave their homes (Taurus) out of necessity. As the North Node moves out of one sign and into another, we are leaving behind something from the previous sign, during the 1930-1932 transit, we left behind agricultural lands, homes, and consistent 'easy' money, and we shifted into a period of shortages, survival, and resourcefulness out of necessity.

We have already seen the mirror of this in 2022 with the agricultural challenges, fertilizer shortages/inflation, and animal feed shortages/inflation affecting the agricultural sector at the time of writing this forecast (August 2022).

It is very possible that into 2023 - 2025 we will see droughts, issues with fires, heatwaves, and continued food supply shortages/inflation/sanctions and challenges with the agricultural sector, as well as financial structural instability, and potentially a stock market low, or crash (possibly October 2022 - at the time of writing), and onward into 2023 - 2025 as the North Node in Aries dries out and heats everything up.

Historically speaking the Nodes in Aries/Libra also marked periods of socialism/marxism, rise to power, and initiation of world wars (under Cardinal & Mutable signs), which tended to expand and amplify under the following nodal shifts - North Node in Pisces (World War 1, next transit Coming 2025 - 2026), North Node Capricorn (Desert Storm, Opposite to North Node Cancer), North Node Cancer (911 & Afghanistan -opposite to North Node Capricorn) North Node Libra (reverse to now - Beginning of World War 2), North Node Virgo (World War 2 - opposite North Node Pisces coming 2025-2026).

Now no single astrological transit can predict future events, however, it can indicate ongoing themes and challenges, and historical events that are echoes of periods of the past to give us an indication of what we may be navigating. There are of course other planets involved in significant world events, but if we look at the current transits at work, some are the exact opposite (mirrors) of previous events. How they may express themselves during this cycle is yet to be seen.

This can be a big period for your business if keep your head in your own lane and focus on what you want to build, taking action and starting things that excite you while also meeting your basic needs.

Beginning of: The End of people pleasing, finding a new identity, Survival, and taking care of oneself, Impulsivity, Taking big risks, Learning self-sufficiency, Decisiveness, Trusting yourself, Independence, Pioneering, Entrepreneurialism, Saying 'no'

In terms of business, there are certain industries that will be trending with this transit -

Fitness & exercise industry, adventure sports, strength training, diamonds, engineering & inventions, metal working, wood carving, garnets, hairstyling, manufacturing, land, metals and metalworking, weapons, military gear, survival programs, skills & courses, optometry, physical therapy, hunting, preserving, politics, cattle & sheep, home improvements to heating systems, roofing, walls, etc, automobile services, sleep products, medical care, knives, engineering tools, welding, farm animal care, services, supplies, and housing.

What to watch during this period collectively:

- Heat, heat exhaustion, Burns, fires, explosions, sharp tools, and instruments causing injury, accidents, Adrenaline (fear)/Adrenal Issues, we need to be extra careful to keep this in check and support our adrenal system - watch the caffeine and mental stress.

- Auto-immune issues, Brain diseases, and afflictions, cerebral congestion and hemorrhages, cerebrospinal nervous system, comas, convulsions, dizziness, inflammatory diseases, encephalitis, epilepsy, eye conditions and disorders, headaches, diseases of the head, smallpox, surgeries, toothaches, vertigo, violent diseases

Countries in the News: France, Denmark, Poland, Germany, England, Iceland, Italy, Iran, Israel, Japan, Lebanon, Lithuania, New Zealand, Portugal, Peru, Palestine, Spain, Northern Sudan, Syria, Netherlands, Wales

Organizations: United Nations

South Node in Libra (July 12 - December 31, 2023)

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Scorpio.

This showed a moving away from deeper transformation, problem-solving, addressing root issues, and an inclination to self-soothe through food, sex, caffeine, sugar, luxury items, retail therapy, and shiny objects. It also showed potentially an increase in debt, and a deep desire to get out of debt or avoid loans.

We saw an interest in the stock market, currency exchange, investments, food security, gardening, real estate, land, agriculture, as well as more luxury items/retail therapy.

The South Node's transit through Scorpio saw a significant shift in our relationships to debt, credit cards, insurance, gas and travel costs, interest rates, mortgages, savings, retirement funds, and other investment assets. Governmental we also saw run-away spending, mass printing of fiat currency, lack of disclosure on funding, increased taxes and debt collection, and more governmental enforcement around debts and taxes. Longer wait times and delays in health care, layoffs, increased job loss, unemployment, and bankruptcy as well as increased costs in insurance, health coverage, and the insurance industry taking significant losses.

Now that the South Node is moving into Libra, we will see more divorces, breakups, ending of business partnerships, and collaborations. We will also see the stress on our justice departments, courthouses, and legal infrastructure, with significant delays and wait times, which will also be met with dissatisfaction with justice, and mistrust of the legal system. The injustices of the transit of the South Node in Scorpio will only create more friction between the government, the legal system, and the people as the South Node moves into Libra and witness the widening gap between those with power and money and those without. As more people experience higher taxation, increased costs of living and lower and inconsistent wages, while witnessing that big business isn't paying their fair share we will likely see increased protests and pushback.

With the North Node in Aries, it can feel like a war on the little guy, with everyone out for themselves.

This can also be a period of increased legal issues, so make sure that you're doing business kosher or you might find yourself in hot water this year.

Lifestyle brands that don't fit into the current needs of their market may find sales drop this year, if you don't have anything of substance behind your business other than fancy pictures or Pina Coladas you may want to re-think your market and what will meet their needs now. Brands that meet more imminent needs, survival, inspiration, action-oriented products, services, and skills development will fair much better during this period.

How can you become the swiss army knife of your industry?

The community isn't seeking balance, posh, and beauty right now, they're trying to keep their head above water, and aren't in a space to scale as much as to hold steady. They will be looking to take big action, innovate, and move quickly. This is not a period of focusing on long-term change or sustainability, it's a period of taking big risks and focusing on today and tomorrow. How does your brand fit in with that?

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

And in this case, it is balance, justice, fairness, and high-quality products and services that are taking the back burner.

Things to monitor during this transit:

- The Legal System - Checks & Balances
- The Law being used to benefit the rich/elite and not the common person/public

- Increased divorce rates
- Reduced Marriages
- Business Partnership Dissolution
- Quantity over Quality (cheaper materials, cheap labor, cutting corners)
- Short Cuts which can lead to legal issues
- Lawsuits
- Theft & Copyright issues

It can be helpful to simply take action on what you are inspired by, and where you feel nudged, this isn't so much a period to perfect or polish your offers, services, and products (that will come later), as that will slow you down. Don't spend too much time overthinking things, utilize the energy you have as you have it, if things don't work out, this is not the time to dwell on the failures but instead to assess what didn't work, and keep moving forward.

This period traditionally is a period of great innovation, and creativity and a great many things are begun under this cycle, ones that you may not understand the significance of until much later.

Take action, stay inspired, and focus on what is within your control.

End of/Challenges to:

- Life of Luxury
- Easy-going existence
- Pursuit of mental activities
- Literature & books
- Tact & Diplomacy
- Ability to see both sides
- Ease in handling money

- Relying on others
- Justice system
- Indecisiveness
- cooperations/partnerships
- Poor boundaries

What will not be as important, end, or fall from 'grace':

Actors & actresses, Artists, Beauty parlors, cosmetics, Interior decoration, Relationships, marriages (increase in divorces), Social gatherings and functions, weddings, products/services considered luxury items

Potential Health issues: Diabetes, kidney issues, fallopian tubes, endocrine system and glands, ovaries and ovarian trouble, renal disorders, ailments of the spine and lumbar region, vasomotor system, urinary issues, bright's Disease, vein system.

Products/Services/Industries & Material Goods that will see a decrease/losses:

Acting, Dressmakers, Florists, Luxury Furniture, Golf, Jewelry/Jewels, Unions, Strawberries, Tailors/Tailoring

Countries/Cities that will experience challenges/endings/transformation:

Antwerp Belgium, Argentina, Austria, Chicago, Denmark, Charleston West Virginia, Burma, China, Frankfurt-am-main Germany, Fribourg Switzerland, India (areas near China), Iraq, Israel, Japan, Johannesburg South Africa, England, Lisbon Portugal, Los Angeles California, Miami Florida, Siberia, South Pacific Islands, Tibet, United States (east of Mississippi River), Vienna Austria
