Cloud In A Bottle

TIME	TASK	DESCRPTION	NEEDS
5 min	Introduce Session	• We will review the session	• have agendas available
20 min	Reading About Cloud	• Directions: We will read a short reading about how clouds are formed with a partner. Read out load and circle the important parts	• Have handout available
15 min	Quick Writing	Directions: Use the space below to write answers to the questions
20 min	Making Clouds	Directions: We will use the next few moments to make clouds. (1) Make a Cloud in a Bottle using rubbing Alcohol Add a small amount of rubbing alcohol, about ¼ and inch. Pump about 8 to 10 pumps of air into the bottle. Pull the stopper out and observe (2) Make a Cloud in a Bottle using water. Add a small amount of rubbing water, about ¼ and inch. Pump about 8 to 10 pumps of air into the bottle. Pull the stopper out and observe	• Have handout available
5 min	Practice Explanations	Directions: Use the space below to write your practice explanations.
10 min	Video Explanations	Record your explanation

520 Galvez Mall –CERAS #228 • Stanford, CA 94305 • brbrown@stanford.edu