Verse 1
| Am - - - | Dm - - -
The garden was a lone - ly place
| G - - - | C - - -
As Je-sus knelt in search of grace
| F - - - | E - - - | Am - - - | Am - - -
Torn be-tween the heart of God and fears of man
| Am - - - | Dm - - -
Re-sign-ing to the truth at last
| G - - - | C - - -
That if the bit-ter cup should pass
| F - - - | E - - - | A - - - | A -
He could not ful-fill what was His Fa - ther's plan

Chorus
- - | Bm7 - - - | E - - -
But what made the bit - ter sweet
| A - - - | F#m - - -
Was know-ing death was not de - feat
| Bm - - - | E - C# - | F#sus - - - | F# - -
He gave the ve - ry life we stood to gain
- | Bm7 - - - | E - - -
He tast-ed bit - ter just one time
| A - - - | F#m - - -
To quench the sins of all man-kind
| Bm - - - | E - C# - | F#sus - - - | F# - -
The bit - ter cup He drank was not in vain
- | Bm - - - | Esus - - -
For the sweet-ness of the vic - tory still re-mains

Interlude: | Am - - - | Dm - - - | Am - - - | Dm - - - | F - - - | Bm - E -

Verse 2
| Am - - - | Dm - - -
I thought I'd gi-ven God con - trol
| G - - - | C - - -
And yet the storm raged in my soul
| F - - - | E - - - | Am - - - | Am - - -
Feel-ing bit-ter-ness I could not un - der stand
| Am - - - | Dm - - -
But then the Mas-ter let me see
| G - - - | C - - -
The bit-ter cup He drank for me
| F - - - | E - - - | A - - - | A -
Dy-ing for the end of what my sin be - gan
[Repeat Chorus]
