Together We're Building a Place of Holiness ~ Stability ~ Nurture ~ Commitment

The 18th Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 21)

Holy Eucharist Renewed Ancient Text

Order of Service ~ September 27, 2026

Welcome to St. Anselm. You have entered into a holy place, a refuge and place of eternal stability; the house where the Lord meets us. We ask that you would please respect this by speaking softly, removing your hat if you're a man, and by not eating or drinking apart from water (children's snacks and drink excepted). If this is your first time worshiping with us, we encourage you to take your part in the liturgy; don't be frustrated or flustered. You're probably not going to "get it" right away. As Anglican Christians, our service is ancient: physically-active, participatory, sensory, and for all ages.

The word Liturgy is Greek for the "work of the people." Together we praise and adore, listen, ask for ourselves, intercede on behalf of others, confess, and are fed & blessed by God. How we worship contrasts with the world and takes practice to learn; it is supposed to be that way, as worship is not primarily about pleasing us, but rather about offering divine service to God. We entrust ourselves to the ancient Traditions of the Church, offering ourselves to a God who will shape the desires of our hearts and transform us.

During the service, we use prayer books and hymnals as aids but our aim ought to ultimately be to memorize the Liturgy, so we might meditate on God's presence through it. As author C.S. Lewis put it: worship is a dance. At first you must learn to dance and intentionally think through each step before you can enjoy it or dance with others. Learning the dance can be hard and requires practice, but once learned it is deeply rewarding. Like a dance, our worship takes some work and you will, undoubtedly, mis-step or get lost for a while. That is okay! Use this Order of Service as a guide and submit yourself to the beauty of holiness.

Fr. Sean Templeton, Rector

CHILDREN AT ST. ANSELM: Children are part of God's family and should be included in our worship and liturgy as much as possible! Let them look at the books, point things out to them during the service, and invite them to sing with you. We expect them to make a little noise during the service; don't let it worry you. "Service & Sermon" clipboards with activities for children (yellow for non-readers/early readers; orange for independent readers) are available, as are blue activity bags for those under 4 – please ask an usher if your child didn't receive one at the door. Any children not yet receiving communion are invited to the altar rail to for a blessing. If you need a little space during the service, there is a nursery located in the back of the church for children under age 2; children over age 2 who are welcome to use the undercroft (basement) where a speaker transmitting the service will keep their accompanying adult involved.

The Service of Holy Communion

Welcome! A 2019 Book of Common Prayer and a blue Christian Life Hymnal are necessary to participate in this service. If you did not receive a copy from an usher, they can be obtained from the cart at the bell tower entrance.

Please silence your cell phones.
