

Engineering for Empowerment
Prof Sujatha Srinivasan

The talk will focus on the design process to innovate and engineer assistive devices for people with disability. Application to a few devices developed at R2D2 – standing wheelchair, prosthetic knee, etc. will be presented.