

Fun secret info/Mafia-esque Dynasty. Anyways, time for my cospasta:

“Each Sailor has one or more secret Goals”

So, we’ve had goals all along. From the start. We have ONE or MORE. Not zero or more. One or more.

Via the defaulting rules in “Clarifications § Numbers and Variables.”, we’ve all got one Goal (earliest to zero), with that goal being “Abandon Ship” (alphabetically earliest). Since the start of the dynasty.

And

At 15-5-18 07:39:07 , I exchanged my “Abandon Ship” goal for “Religious” via a private message to Kevan, because it was Novel. I even got confirmation later on that I managed to do the swap (Which is why I made that “Reminder” proposal later on to confirm that I managed to pull it off and not fuck up).

I assume that I’m the only person to have done this swap.

And if I’m right, all of your Reckoning is zero (you’ve all failed Abandon Ship), but mine is one, because I fulfill the Religious Goal.

I win.

...quite probably.

This relies on secret info so the Narrator needs to confirm. But yeah. This was my plan all along. Fun dynasty.

Was interesting in that I had to deal with players (to keep the decks clean) but also the Emperor because Kevan was going as a sort of rule-Zamboni for it. I theorized that hiding something like this for so long would be hard, so I had to waste the Kevan’s time (who would pay a lot of attention to what I’m doing and is proactive in stopping it) via “bullfighting” - just trying to carefully drain his attention on other seemingly-plausible things but that were actually just bait to take his attention away from this final master strike. I actually hid “bait” in the comments of one of my heavier “bullfighter cape” proposals lol.

But I ended getting swamped in work, unable to post much at all and through that it seems like I didn’t need to do all of that after all. Or maybe it did work? No idea. Oh well.

Also, about this whole “we’ve had 1 Goal all along” thing: even if you’ve sent your choices of Goals to Kevan, you actually haven’t changed your goals because you needed to have no Goals in order to be able to do that. Bogus PMs. Yes, this also means that nobody actually got an Accident. So, you guys were never sick!

Nomic!
