

The Diary of Anne Frank
Final Project / Presentation

Name: _____

WEEK 1:

Select a guiding question or write your own with teacher approval.

- _____ How do Anne Frank's surroundings affect her as a person and how can you relate to Anne's story?
- _____ How does extreme hatred affect our world?
- _____ What role did propaganda play in the war? What role does propaganda play in the world today?
- _____ How did the systemic nature of the anti-Jewish decrees...
- _____

WEEK 2:

Include key concept vocabulary.

Select at least three of the vocabulary terms below that you plan to integrate into your project.

apathy	genocide	hate	antisemitism
systemic	ethnocentrism	ghettos	concentrations camps
propaganda	scapegoat	upstander	bystander

Conduct research.

Use a minimum of one additional resource that supports your work. You can use KnightCite to help you create your citation below.

Bibliographical Information

Decide on a presentation format.

Will you present with a poster board, a diary, a book report, artifacts, or in a digital format like Vines, Photo Story, or iMovie?

WEEK 3:

Create your final product. Meet with your teacher for suggestions.

Meet with a tutor to review your project along with your Final Project Checklist early this week.

GRADING RUBRIC

PRODUCT

CREATIVITY & INNOVATION

_____ / 15

- originality: unique, has a personal touch
- value: solves the problem, answers the guiding question
- style: incorporates an attractive design but is appropriate for the purpose

PROCESS

_____ / 10

- incorporates at least one revision
- involves a trip to the tutoring center

PRESENTATION

FOCUS

_____ / 10

- illustrates the guiding question
- has a clearly defined topic
- focuses on significant content
- captures the content you intend to share

ORGANIZATION

_____ / 5

- include a clear beginning, middle, and end

SUPPORT/ELABORATION

_____ / 10

- includes one alternate source
- makes references to Anne Frank and WWII

AUDIENCE

_____ / 10

- engages the audience with a beginning that generates interest and curiosity
- provides a clear visual component
- includes elements in the presentation that are lively, engaging, and powerful to the audience
- answers audience questions clearly and completely

TOTAL

_____ / 60