The abstract must be written in English as continuous text in Times New Roman, size 11, without paragraphs. After the text, 3 to 5 keywords should be included. No list of references should be presented, however, if the author deems it necessary to refer to a specific publication, it should be included within the text in parentheses with the minimal information required for its consultation. It is recommended not to insert tables or figures. If the author considers this necessary, the text should be adjusted to ensure it does not exceed one A4 page, following the margins defined here. In summary, the abstract should be formatted as described here, edited in MS Word, on a single A4 page, with moderate margins (Top 2.54 cm, Bottom 2.54 cm, Left 1.91 cm, Right 1.91 cm). The title and subtitle should be written in English, in uppercase, bold, Times New Roman, size 12. The authors' names should be written in Times New Roman, italic, size 12, in a single line, with superscript numerical indication in parentheses of the institutions to which they are affiliated. The institutions to which the authors are affiliated should be listed one per line, preceded by the superscript numerical indication in parentheses, including the name of the institution, acronym in uppercase, city, state abbreviation, and the name of the country where it is located, in Times New Roman, italic, size 11. The abstract has no word limit; however, it must be presented on a single A4 page, respecting the margins and text formatting defined here. Therefore, it is recommended that it be around 500 words.
