Banana Split for My Baby – 1956 - Louis Prima

From the Movie: Hey Boy. Hey Girl.

INTRO C – A7 – D7 – G7 – C

```
   C                     A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
  D7              G7         C
A glass of plain water for me.
    C                     A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
  D7                        G7
A glass of plain water for me.
```

```
C//               C7//
 Dispenser man, if you please,
F//                        Fm//
Serve my chick a mess of calories.
    C                     A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
  D7              G7         C
A glass of plain water for me.
```

```
G7// – C//
       Flip back the lid, scoop anything in sight.
G7// – C//
       Make it a rainbow, of red, brown, and white.
G7// – C//
       Chocolate chips and everything that's nice.
G7// – C                        G7   C
      Tutti frutti once and spu-moni twice.
```

```
   C                     A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
     D7              G7         C
And a glass of plain water for me.
```

```
G7// – C//
       Spray the whipped cream for at least an hour.
G7// – C//
       Pile it as high as the Eiffel Tower.
G7// – C//
       Load it with nuts about sixteen tons.
G7// C                   G7         C
Then top it with a pizza just for fun,
```

```
   C                        A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
      D7              G7         C
And a glass of plain water for me.

   C                        A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
  D7              G7         C
A glass of plain water for me.
                        A7
Banana split for my baby,
  D7                        G7
A glass of plain water for me.

C//                    C7//
 Stack 'er up with crazy goo!
F//                                        Fm//
  'Cause that's the stuff she likes to wade right through.
    C                        A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
  D7              G7         C
A glass of plain water for me.

G7// - C//
         Now add the cherries, the kind she loves to munch.
G7// - C//
         Skip one banana, use the whole darn bunch.
G7// - C//
         Drown it in fudge, six or seven cans.
G7// - C                              G7          C
      Give her two spoons, she'll eat it with both hands.

   C                        A7
Ba-nana split for my baby,
      D7              G7         C
And a glass of plain water for me.

G7// C//                    C7//
      Separate checks now it must be.
F//
Charge the split to her,
          Fm//
Charge the water to me!
```

```
        C                              A7
The ba-nana split, it's for my baby,
        D7                G7          C//
And the glass of plain water's for me

Ain't got no money.
    C//              G7//        C// - G7// - C7//
The glass of plain water's for me!
```