

Read the words to the song, "When Prohibition Wins."

24 When Prohibition Wins. J. H. FILLMORE.
REV. T. C. JOHNSON.

1. There'll be joy abroad, shouts of praise to God, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins;
2. There'll be more bright homes when the glad day comes, When prohibition wins;
3. The sa-loon will die and the slums go dry, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins;
4. Man - y crimes will cease, there'll be love and peace, When pro-hi-bi-tion wins;
5. So, my lads, stand fast, and your ballots cast, Till pro - hi - bi - tion wins;

There'll be hearts made light, gloomy days made bright, When pro-hi-bi-tion wins.
Then will sor - row flee, and the bond go free, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins.
There'll be pau - pers few, am - ple work to do, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins.
And the State may be from cor - rup-tion free, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins.
Let the bu - gle sound ring the world a-round, Till pro - hi - bi - tion wins.

CHORUS.

When pro - hi - bi - tion wins, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins, What a day of re - joic-ing ev'-ry-where there'll be, When pro - hi - bi - tion wins.

Copyright, 1900, by Fillmore Bros.

Gordon, Anna A. The Temperance Songster. Cincinnati: Fillmore Bros, 1904. Minnesota Historical Society.

Answer the Following Questions:

- 1. Why was this song possibly written?
- 2. What is the objective of the song?
- 3. Can this type of society be possible? Why/why not?
- 4. What is your reaction to this song?