

	Behavioral Characteristics	Example in Scripture	7's:	Day of Creation	Tabernacle Furniture	Name of Jehovah	Miracle from John	Message Church in Rev.	Last words of Christ	Birthright & Battlefield
G I V E R	Most diverse/ adaptable /flexible of all gifts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Very independent - Designed not to be needy – does not look to others for help - Can look at a problem and find own solution - Can't be hustled – must accrue money b4 giving - Able to relate to wide range of people - Sensitive to manipulation of other's toward spouse or family - Private in own life – protective of reputation of self, spouse, and family - Delegates spiritual warfare - Non-confrontational by nature – wait for opportunity to get best out of situation, won't knock down hurdles - Immense heart for evangelism but does everything just short of sharing the gospel overtly - Nurturer to family – facilitate family envir. Intuitive - Concerned about safety, cautious - Is without shame – 	Abraham Jacob Job Matthew Cain		Day 5 Initial blessing Life in the Blood	Altar of Incense	Jehovah Roi - The Lord is My Shepherd Psalm 23 A picture of the process of the giver... God takes them through "the valley" to establish trust	Healing man born blind	Sardis	I thirst The issue is here is the Givers difficulty in asking for help they prefer to do it on their own	Release of blessing Spiritual authority to protect new life both spiritual and natural Recognize the significance of the generational blessings

