Please note I do not accept commissions on any other platforms as of current for ease of communication.

Payment information:

I only accept Paypal or direct Bank Transfer if you are within South Africa. Please do not ask me for other methods of payment.

I need at least half the payment before I can start working, this is a non-refundable deposit. You cannot ask for this deposit back after I have started working.

In the case of Rush Orders, a Rush fee will be added and Payment must be done in full before any work is done on the order.

Shipping

If you are purchasing a digital item, nothing will be shipped. You will be sent the item via Email as well as through the chosen above platform that you are communicating with me on.

If you have chosen a physical item, this will be shipped to you. Please note none of the prices below include shipping as shipping varies between countries, weight, and size.

There are two types of shipping available. Regular Post office shipping is the cheapest option, it will come through the International Postal Service and can be shipped anywhere around the world. This method of shipping can take between 1-4 months to arrive. It is up to the person who ordered the item to keep an eye on tracking and collect the package when it arrives. I as the person who shipped the item cannot actually track the package due to the way the tracking works between countries.

The other option for shipping is DHL Express. This will have your package to your house within a week, however it can become incredibly expensive especially for larger stuffed animals. This is only recommended if you cannot wait for any reason and you are willing to spend a large amount on shipping.

Aggressive or Rude Behaviour

I as the artist have the right to terminate a commission if a client is rude or aggressive. If I feel my health, safety, or work is being threatened I will terminate the contract and no work will continue. If work has not been done on the suit as of yet, you may receive half to full payment as a refund depending on circumstances. If work has been started, you will receive the unfinished items and no refund will be given.

I will not and do not tolerate any form of abuse, be it verbal, physical, or otherwise. Should a client become aggressive or rude, I reserve the right to end all communication and cancel the current commission as well as bar the client from future commissions.

Liability after completion

Once a product has left my store I am no longer liable for it or the user of said product. Should damage occur to the suit while in the possession of the client I am not liable for any damages or destruction.

I am not liable nor do I claim any responsibility should a client hurt themselves or others while using or handling a product of my creation.

Should injury or damage occur to any persons at no fault of I as the creator occur, I cannot be held liable or responsible for any claims or damages.

Should a product break or cause injury due to a manufacture issue, contacting me personally is advised as it will allow me to resolve the conflict amicably.

I do not claim liability over how a product is used or where it is used and by whom. Should crimes, injury, destruction of property, or even death occur I cannot be held responsible or liable.

Warranty

Fursuits have up to a 2 year Warranty, giving them free repairs for minor damage such as torn seams or small breaks in the fabric. Should a repair need new fabric or whole new materials to be used, the client may be liable to a Damage Fee for repairs. Warranty does not include shipping rates. Client is responsible for paying all shipping for suit should they wish to send it back for any reason.

Free repairs are limited to manufacture issues, small rips or tears, and loose glue. Should the client break, burn, rip, alter, or otherwise change or use the suit not as intended it will void the warranty. Any alterations to the suit such as extra zippers, markings or removal of details will void the warranty.

TOS

I as the artist reserve the right to cancel or refuse service to any individual under any circumstances I see fit. Cancellation or refusal of service by the artist will result in a total refund of the Deposit and any payments thereafter unless stated otherwise.

A Deposit of at least 50% of the total cost is required before work begins, This can be paid in multiple installments if needed, but work on the project will not start until a minimum of half has been paid.

Deposits are non-refundable once the project has started and the artist has given you proof in writing or an image that the project is in motion. Before the project starts a full refund is able to be done, but needs to be done in writing.

Should the customer decide to cancel the project in the middle of progress for any reason, the customer may get a partial refund if needed, but the deposit will not be refunded and will be kept as a labor cost for the work already finished. Cancellation of any project is to be done in writing. Cancellation for any reason does not constitute refunds.

No refunds will be given for any form of cancellation under any circumstances unless stated otherwise or work on the project has not started.

If the recipient is unhappy with the outcome of the project, they cannot ask for a refund for such work, but may request up to 3 large changes and 10 minor changes.

An extra fee will be charged should more changes be made after the project is completed. During the project should a person wish to make large changes, they will have 4 large changes before a fee will be charged per change. Minor changes are welcomed unless stated otherwise. through the aforementioned social media.
