Song to animate over: Our Journey and Epilogue \(The name of the animation\)

Story + Time codes:

0:00-0:45

Mc and friends wake up on the "big day" very excited for what they have planned

0:45-0:50

Opening/title sequence

0:50-1:06

Backstory starts, something bad is happening to mc and he has nobody to lean on because he's an outcast

1:06-1:26

Mc goes through a normal day for them, acting as if everything going on around them is normal

1:26-2:08

Mc starts bonding with other outcasts, but doesn't quite trust them yet and needs time to get to know them

2:08-2:20

Mc spends an absurd amount of time thinking about his interaction from the day before

2:20-3:09

(Entire part should be animated in a pixel art style, like Aesprite or something)

Mc spends the entire day bonding with his new found friends, but still has the weight of what happened (or is happening) on his shoulders

3:09-3:32

Mc breaks and finally comes out to his friends about what's happening with him

3:32-3:53

MC's friends are baffled by what he's told them, and want to help, but mc doesn't appreciate this, so he goes home and wallows all day

3:53-4:16

Mc reconsiders letting his friends help him with his troubles, and they spend the day coming up with a plan to deal with it

4:16-4:33

Mc dreams about the following morning until sunrise

4:33-4:51

Shows mc getting himself ready for the big event at home before heading off to meet up with friends

4:51-5:07

Mc meets up with friends to get ready and then they head off to deal with the issue that's been bothering mc

5:07-5:48

(Obviously the most epic part of the animation)

Mc and friends arrive at the issue, tackle it and come out victorious in the end

5:48-6:02

Mc and friends bath in victory and take a group photo at the end to freeze the moment in time forever

6:02-6:08 = nothing

6:08-6:32

//MY journey and epilogue ;)
