

German Honors Class Tracking

Week #5: 05/11/2020 - 05/15/2020

Anweisungen (instructions): Look at the learning menu below and complete 90 minutes of learning from at least three of the four targeted learning categories below (speaking, reading, listening, writing). The writing category will be required for all students this week. Keep track of your work in the tracking table below and don't forget to practice your "Übungen," everyday you work on your German Class. If you keep a detailed list like this example there should be no reason why you don't pass this semester of German. When you have completed this table below turn this document into the assignment for the current week on Google Classroom.

Your Name:

What did you do? If possible, please link your completed work here.	How long did you do that activity? (All activities combined should total at least 90 minutes.)	How did it help you gain more skills toward your language learning?
