Purpose of applying the leadership
Experiences	※Have you had any experience in facilitating small group discussions?

Your group's name and topic	※Here are some of the previous group topics we've had: Global Culinary, Know Yourself Better, Responsible Consumption and Reducing Waste, GMOs and Sustainable Food. We're excited to see your topic spark members' interest and inspire engaging discussions and conversations. Consider exploring diverse topics such as art (e.g., films, documentaries, music, theater), philosophy (e.g., college life struggles, life philosophy), astronomy and constellations, libraries, museums, pets, fun economics, fun psychology, sports, nutrition, health, and so on.
Introduction about your group's topic (below 150 words)	※The introduction will be provided to students during the sign-up for reference.
Group's topic related to SDGs	※Ensure that at least two of your five group meetings are related to the SDGs. Could you let us know which SDGs your group's topic might align with?
Leader Training & Orientation	※A leader training, an orientation and a sharing party will be held in evening. To accommodate the availability of facilitators and other leaders, please mark any unavailable time slots with an "X" in the following schedule. Leader Training(daytime, 1.5hr) 3/17(Tue.):10:00 or 14:00 3/19(Thu.):10:00 or 14:00 3/20(Fri.):10:00 or 14:00 Orientation(Evening 18:00-20:30, 2.5hr) 3/24(Tue.): 3/25(Wed.): 3/26(Thu.): Sharing Party(Evening 18:00-20:00, 2hr) 5/19(Tue.): 5/20(Wed.): 5/21(Thu.):

Available Time	Please conduct at least 5 meetings starting from 10/20 to 11/28, with each lasting for 100 minutes. Please fill in your 3 preferred group meeting time in order; the library will display these options to students during sign-up, and the final schedule will be determined based on their selection. (e.g. ①Monday 18:30-20:10, ②Friday 18:00-19:40, ③Saturday 10:00-11:40) ① ② ③
Record a Video (2-3minutes)	※The video is expected to include a self-introduction, the group topic, and how you plan to lead the group. 1. Please upload your video to YouTube 2. paste "Introduction about your group topic" to the description of the video 3. set the visibility to "Unlisted" 4. paste the URL here URL: _____
Book recommendations	※Library will be organizing a book display related to your group's topic. Could you recommend 1-2 books (either from the library's collection or ones we don't have but could consider purchasing)? Please also provide a short 50-word recommendation explaining why you suggest these books. ※The book recommendations will be displayed in the Library's Book Display and SDG Platform. Regardless of whether I am selected as a Leader, I agree that the Library may publish my book recommendation (including my name and recommendation text) on the SDG Platform. ☐ Accept

Others	※By ticking the box below, you consent to having your photos and videos used for public announcements if selected as a leader for the Library Chatsphere. We require all leaders to provide these materials, which will be used solely to help students make informed choices when selecting their teams during registration. ☐ Accept
