Module objectives/intended learning outcomes	1. A course on Balaghah (Arabic rhetoric or eloquence) would typically focus on equipping students with a deep understanding of the principles and techniques of Balaghah in Arabic language and literature. These objectives aim to enhance students' abilities to analyze, appreciate, and apply the rhetorical devices and stylistic features found in Arabic texts (S8). 2. Interpretation and Meaning: Examine how Balaghah affects the interpretation and meaning of Arabic texts, including religious and poetic works. Historical Context: Explore the historical development of Balaghah and its role in Arabic literature, including its significance in classical and modern texts. 3. Understanding Balaghah Concepts: Develop a solid understanding of fundamental Balaghah concepts, such as "Majaz" (metaphor) and "Isti'ara" (simile), and their roles in Arabic rhetoric. Rhetorical Devices: Identify and explain various rhetorical devices used in Arabic literature, including "Iltifat" (shift in address), "Tashbih" (comparison), and "Tamsil" (allegory). Analysis Skills: Acquire the skills to critically analyze Arabic texts to recognize the use of Balaghah techniques and their impact on the meaning and style of the text (C5). Appreciation of Style: Develop an appreciation for the artistic and stylistic qualities of Arabic literature through the study of Balaghah. (A5).
