

Mentor Sentence Hyperdoc

Mentor Sentence:	“On the walls of this temple, Hatshepsut had artists carve and paint her biography” (Adronik 8).
Day of the Week	Directions	Student Work Space
Monday Focus on Parts of speech	Write each word from this week's sentence next to the correct part of speech. Can't remember all of the parts of speech? Use your notes or watch this video.	Noun: Pronoun: Proper Noun: Verb: Adjectives: Adverbs: Prepositions: Conjunctions: Articles: Interjections:
Tuesday Focus on subjects and predicates	Highlight the mentor sentence Simple subject- bold Complete subject-highlight yellow Simple predicate- underline Complete predicate- highlight teal Quick review videos below: Subject/ Predicate simple vs. complete
Wednesday	What type of sentence is the mentor	Answer both questions with complete sentences. Use the question to

Focus on sentence types	sentence? Simple Compound Complex What kind of sentence is the mentor sentence? Declarative-statement, ends with a period. Imperative-direction/command, usually followed by a period. Interrogative-question, ends with ? Exclamatory-exclaims, ends with an ! Watch the this video to review the types of sentences.	start your sentence. 1.
Thursday Make your own sentences	Read the sentence of week again. Using the same sentence structure, write your own example sentence. Insert a picture that represents your sentence. (You can write more than one example if you have time.)
Friday Time to show what you know	Quiz Time!	