BIPOC Committee- Tabling/Recruiting: We tabled at Madison High School for their Spring Trade Fair on 4/27. We met a few students who were taking various levels of ASL classes there, but looking into other professions. We talked to one Latinx student who showed sincere interest. We had a QR code ready with a link to FAQs on how to become one and info on local classes and programs. Thanks, Nathan and Liz, for that info!

Social: Tomorrow, 6/3, BIPOC DHH and hearing community will meet up at Miramar Overlook Park from 11-2p for informal hang out, food, and games to enjoy the outdoors.

ASL Immersion Conference: We will have a Deaf BIPOC Panel at the conference! Laura Kim, Isaiah Moore, Ruth Rosas, & Nadmi Casiano. Razi Hall (moderator)

Communications - Reina Castro (temporary)

If there is any information that you would like to share on social media, send to Reina.

PDC- Nathan Brown and Lori Bellama

Lori - ASL Immersion Update - Fri and Sat sold out, 2 spots left for Sunday. Most of our presenters confirmed. Networking Fair has 12 booths so far (4 are Deaf-owned creators/businesses + DCS booth.) Many have responded they are not available this year but to please keep them in mind for presentations and/or booths next year if we host it again. Would love some support with the Networking Fair and hope everyone will show up, meet and network with participants, spend your moolah supporting the Deaf-run booths, and help make the event successful! Once the Immersion Conference is over I can help and support the Fall EIPA workshop if needed.

Lori & Nathan - We met and talked about our visions and ideas for next year, including hopefully hosting the ASL Immersion Conference again but begin planning stages in January. We hope to host a meeting after the Conference with our partners for feedback and to figure out what we can do better next time. More of our visions/ideas will be fleshed out at the Aug retreat. We would love to communicate and condense SDCRID scheduled events to increase attendance and have the events not be so spread out across the calendar for B&C as well as members/community.

Bylaws-Reina Castro

Almost all of the ASL version of the Bylaws has been uploaded. Waiting to see who will be paid to film again.
