

Jacob Gottloeb

717.818.3395

jacobgottloeb@gmail.com

EDUCATION

2024 Expected Graduation Date with BFA in Photography, Tyler School of Art and Architecture, PA.

2017 Red Lion High School, Red Lion, PA.

EXPERIENCE

2022-2023 Studio Monitor, Tyler School of Art and Architecture, Philadelphia, PA.

Responsibilities included: Mixing and storing chemicals, maintaining darkroom sinks and equipment, helping students with digital equipment, cataloging and assisting rentals of equipment.

EXHIBITIONS

2023 Family Ties, Stella Elkins Gallery, Philadelphia, PA.
Solo Exhibition.

2023 Photo Seniors Group Show, Tyler School of Art and Architecture, Temple University, Philadelphia PA.
Group Exhibition.

2023 Ascension, Stella Elkins Gallery, Philadelphia, PA.
Solo Exhibition.

PRESENTATIONS

2023 Artist Talk, Tyler School of Art and Architecture, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA.

SKILLS

ANALOG

Extensive use of a variety of 35mm and medium format cameras
4x5 view camera
C-41 film processing
Black and white film processing
Black and white print processing
General Darkroom Maintenance, chemicals and chemical mixing

Alternative Processes: Cyanotype, Van Dyke Brown, Toning, Salt
Printing, and Gum Bichromate

DIGITAL

Windows Platform

Mac Platform

Adobe Creative Suite: Photoshop, Lightroom, InDesign, Acrobat, Illustrator, Premiere Pro

Microsoft Office Suite: Word, Excel, Powerpoint

Scanning: Epson flatbed and wet scanning, ImageCapture, Silverfast

Canon and Epson Printers

Digital Negative Making

Studio Lighting Equipment

MadMapper Projection Software

Cheqroom

PORTFOLIOS

Family Ties, 2023

Video/sculpture installation. Exploring dynamics of authority, conflict, and family using recontextualized cartoons and comics.

Ascension, 2023

Inkjet prints. Exploring new planes of focus and perspective through architecture and its surroundings.

Security, 2022.

Silver Gelatin Prints. Explores surveillance in public and private spaces on the street.

References available upon request.