

So this doc is about Finny/Aria/@SilliestSylvie's behavior and attitude towards some people I know, and this is more focused on what stuff she's done wrong. (Just a forewarning, the screenshots looks bad on iPhone for some reason)

It will crescendo about how serious her actions are.

Starting with this, this seemed a little like just simple talking and teasing. It's a little self-explanatory as the friend explained.

Now to be blunt, I thought originally that this was friendly conversation that went through whiplash, but my friend clarified to me there was already some strain between them both before this. Now the following screenshot is a bit worse.

Now this is a wholesome stuff, two new plushies it, and it's complete with open messages on discord of her feeling negative to a friend of mine, who is trying to comfort her the night before, and want to know what's worse: she posted it the literal day after that talk, just to show off the two plushies.

Now, there can be arguments to her leaking her friend's discord screenshots being an accident, but the problem is that at best, Aria is a very reckless individual with keeping things between friends private, and at worst, she is an individual who just doesn't care about the privacy of others (which will be ironic later but I'm getting there).

Now the following parts are gonna be less possible mistakes or misunderstandings and more how Aria treated the people providing these, more central to the reason he blocked Aria in the first place.

Mon, 15 Jun

Is this really about me [REDACTED]. I didn't betray you. I called out what i see. And the one time I confront you. You block me instead of talking it out. You want to know the reason?

Almost any time we talked. It was always about you. You've never asked me how i feel. It was always about yourself. I'm a little bit self-centered. But the fact that you always never even bothered to ask me how i feel ever. You wanna know what you asked me for instead? Nitro. And I gave it out of my kindness because i said i would. And I don't break promises. Especially those petty ones.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I know you're sensitive to criticism. And the one time i criticize you. You block me lmao.

I'm not mad about the block. I'm not even upset over it. Just disappointed.

And I stopped asking you how you were feeling because you never asked me how I were feeling (proof in this sc I took from our conversation by unblocking you so you can see as well my message and your message) 11m

Here in the screenshot above, we can see, for example, Aria accusing my friend of never caring to ask her how she was feeling, but, he unblocked her over Discord, and took a screenshot of his discord search bar, searching how much between her and him were asking to the each other how they were feeling, we can see she lied, and that it's literally the opposite, he also gave me a sc to show what she sometimes answered when he asked her how she was feeling (when she wasn't ignoring his question).

Eh?

So presently, what we have here is Aria lying to my friend about what he had asked in the past so she can make herself look like a victim he's attacking, when it evidently is not the case.

Now, interjecting here. This is something that is seen from these and even convos with Aria. She is emotionally unchecked, mostly because she doesn't stop herself when she does things without reason. This explains later segments and her friendship with Naveen crumbling, and additional behaviors that will be shown.

16:41

Today

Oh? I act out?. Tell me one time that I did. To you. The reason it happened with sol is because, Naveen is an asshole and we shouldnt stalk someone. If he makes the same mistakes and gets caught again. thats his fault.

I've told you multiple times to say shit to my face, I value honesty. I would of taken it and listened. Just like how after you said to not joke about the [Redacted], I stopped. Because you were honest.

You wanna know the true reason i stopped caring? Because I could feel you weren't being an honest person about yourself. And that's just stupid. Thats. How do i put it. Manipulative. and hurts yourself in the longer run.

Okay, I just realized her saying this, and frankly, this isn't a good idea, she's stating that Nebby should be allowed his own device now, which is honestly horrible given Nebby very likely is in an echo chamber so he is free of potential consequence until whatever community he's in presently notices.

Thats. How do i put . Today , pulative. and Its manipulative. Because to the other person you're still being caring and nice. But to yourself you don't want to talk to them but you're too afraid to say anything so you're not being honest about your feelings. I know you do this.

I'll tell others how the fuck i feel about them. I don't care. Honesty is the number one thing in relationships. And if you fail to do that. Your relationships are doomed to fail.

15:24 ✓

You want honesty, alright, I'm rereading it again and again, and honestly, it seem hypocritical speaking defensive how you are over Naveen's behavior toward Nebby, knowing you were the one who outed Sol and defending the literal child predator, you want to be in the right, you speak like you are right, btw, did you go back to my account to force the follow on your alts ? Because I clearly remember unfollowing them, which is very strange, since I unfollowed your main account with my main account at the same time I unfollowed your alts accounts with that account, which

So here it is, the connected part about Aria that my friend highlighted, her way of handling things reads like someone who wants to be validated constantly in a positive light, or viewed as a victim in any serious conflict. And if she doesn't like what you have to say, she does an incredible thing to get back at the person. Such as...

Opening up an operation to expose to Nebby that people were trying to gather info on what he's doing on platforms like Discord mostly and find out who was still supporting him to get them banned off Discord.

Ayana~:3 Yesterday at 11:59 PM

I'm gonna come clean sol. Since im tired of this and its really hurting my mental health atp. And i just want to get away from this situation, I expect an auto block.

But.

So. This account is an alt. Its me. Finny. and Naveen also has access to this account. The 2nd alt account dm from me (finny) was something naveen told me to do. I didnt want to. But i also just didnt want to just say "no" outright to naveen. So i logged into one of my alts, I didnt just make them ive had them for years. But thats besides the fact. I just changed password on this account to make sure naveen doesnt have access to it anymore.

(Aria on Naveen's alt.)

So yeah, for clarifying (you will see shortly), Naveen didn't want to let Nebby run rampant after the doc came out and he was taken out from Pokétwt. So in a group chat focused on collecting info on Nebby, he made an alternate account, and Aria acted as the person to get Nebby's trust, once more, to collect info on the guy, what communities he's in, and who is still supporting.

Listen while, I wholeheartly beleive the things you did were disgusting, I would never stoop as low as stalking you. This may be a contradiction. But i did get really pissed when i found out from someone that you were talking in eeveebox. It was a heat of a moment kinda thing. So i logged into my alt to message you. Then naveen came up with the idea to friend you on an alt and gain your trust (this account).

And while, I do expect an instant block. I will do everything in my power to make sure naveen doesnt try this again. I do hope you still have friends even after everything. If you wish to unblock my main account i'll share more info about what we were actually doing.

Ayana~:3 12:01AM

Oh yea and heres proof its me

THE SUN LION & Zacian 12:08 AM i...

im really unsure on how to feel abt it...

i do really appreciate the honesty... its just...

i did want to get away from everything too... but with the block evading, it really did feel like stalking...

but now that i know naveen told you to do this, it genuinely makes me wonder how much i really am at fault for everything... bc yea, i did do those things, but naveen did go behind my back the whole time... and he couldve talked in dms...

Now to make it clear about Nebby briefly from my perspective, he has a victim mentality (on top of having narcissistic tendencies), he will never see himself as the person that ruined his reputation in the community (honestly. He had lolcow material before he got outed, ngl), and unfortunately, due to Aria very likely, I doubt he will ever have this retrospective (if it was ever possible considering who he is).

Ayana~:3 12:10 AM

Funny enough. the only reason im really doing this is because naveen pissed me off eariler

Yeah finnys a snitch and SOLD ME AND EVERYONE OUT, SHE DECIDED THAT THIS WASNT OKAY FOR HER MENTAL HEALTH! Thats okay yknow. She doesn't have to do this. She can just leave the accou- oh wait no sorry she CHOSE TO TELL SOL EVERYTHING WHILST INSULTING ME ON MY OWN ACCOUNT, CHANGED THE PASSWORD WHICH IS STUPID CAUSE I OWN THE EMAIL, HOPED THAT SOL STILL HAD FRIENDS, SAID HER ONLY REASON FOR TELLING HIM IS CAUSE I PISSED HER OFF, EXPOSED THE GC, (I'll explain in a min) and she has the audacity to act like she's in the right

You're missing some pretty important context here so I'll screen record me explaining to someone what happened from the start

And I have more to provide, specifically Naveen's side of what exactly happened that caused Aria to go to Nebby like she did.

The Ultimate Cookie 7:09 PM

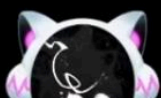

Okay

Well I suppose we should start from the very beginning. Me and Finny noticed sol in a mutual server with us, and we got him banned. Some guy with minor in his bio inquired about why sol got banned

Finny reached out to him and found out that Sol was doing erps with this minor. He'd groomed another minor, even with the fact the minor had the fact they were a minor in their bio

So finny decided to make a gc with some people including me to discuss the situation

Anyways I had an idea. I shared it to the whole gc not to only finny. This will important later.

The Ultimate Cookie 7:26 PM

wasn't a pedophile and hadn't just groomed another minor I wouldn't have done or suggested it. But everyone in the gc was fine with someone doing it and wouldn't you know Finny volunteered. But she didn't have any older alt accounts to use and so I allowed her to use mine, of course, allowing me to see what was being said. I told her I'd change the password if anything got too freaky so that only she could access it. Luckily it didn't come to that. You'll see why later, though I'm not sure if it would have happened, nothing can happen now. You'll see why later. Anyways we did that. We conversated with him, I knew what I was getting into, I was careful, though on both counts it seems finny was not. We got important information via this method such as the fact apparently a couple of people were apparently a couple of people were still friends with Sol, including Dusk Mane Necrozma. That's what Sol said. Dusk mane said otherwise. Not sure who to believe. We were never able to get evidence because of finny. There was a lot more information we could have gotten. Anyways as usual Sol tried to defend himself and it was stupid. Such as "not knowing ignis' age" and shit. Yknow. Expected that. I took precautions to ask stuff without seeming suspicious. But here's where things went to hell.

Finny after like two days decided "yknow I'm done with this. It's bad for my mental health." That's fine. She can step away. She can just leave the accou- oh wait no

No

NO

no that's not what she did at all

accou- oh wait no

NO

no that's not what she did at all.

She sold me out. Sold the GC OUT!

She exposed everything to him, shit talking me on my own account to him!

She even said to him "I do hope you still have friends after everything."

She framed her reason for doing this as empathy but she states in her conversation with him that she only did it because she "was pissed off at Naveen." She even changed my password on the account which was STUPID because I OWN THE EMAIL! I COULD RESET THE PASSWORD!

She apparently even sent him who was in the gc.

She made me look like a villain and talked shit about me. She sold the

Now to be clear, Naveen is right about one aspect here, all Aria could've done is show her dms with Naveen exclusively to Nebby, but for whatever reason, she decided to sink the whole ship, all because of an opinion Naveen had and because she had lost her temper, she decided to go to Nebby.

(Now for clarifying, the person censored in these two screenshots is not my friend but someone else, the person Naveen spoke about earlier.)

Here's their conversation with the screenshots she sent him.

Framing it as me pressuring her into it when she volunteered.

The Ultimate Cookie 7:33 PM

I have genuinely never been more pissed off at someone I considered a best friend.

And you know what? If she was going to throw me under the bus I'd throw her under the bus straight back.

I held a terrible secret for her. One I hated keeping

And here's her reason for exposing the account because she was pissed off at me: I was upset that she added [REDACTED] to the sol discussion gc and we argued about it.

Other than what was already known secret is that [REDACTED] took part in the erps.

I didn't know until like a week or two after the doc dropped.

And from there's more screenshot given about Aria still being friends with Nebby months later (the people providing these have consented).

Oh speaking of nebbby

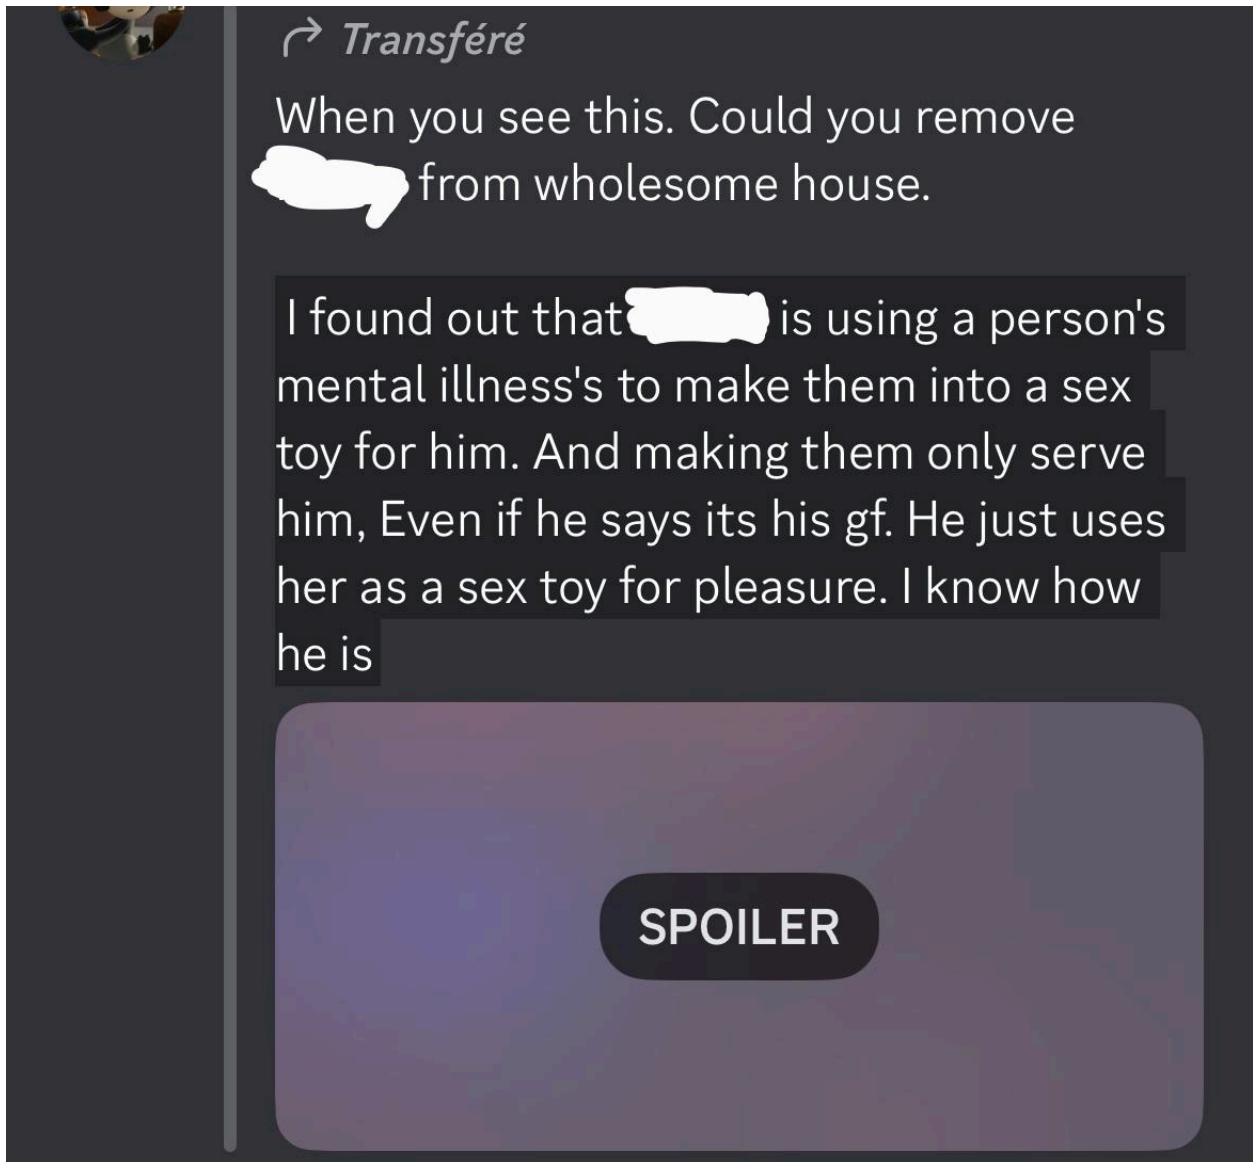

I do wonder cause you dodged the question last time, did you erp with Nebby at all during the time AFTER everything went down? I ask for a couple of reasons, A. You dodged the question. B. You're kinda an avid ERPer, and C. You were his wife in character.

Aria! ♡ 8/11/26, 9:04 PM

Like once or twice. I think i was bored or something-. Most of the time i just ignored him or just said “meow”

Now rereading these screenshots, it becomes evident, Aria is controlled by her emotions heavily (once more), she'll lash out and do something without thinking twice or hard on it at all. Now to be blunt, it's very evident Aria will act out, friendship is merely a view for her until she gets upset or mad at the person in question. Then she will do whatever she needs to to take that person down. Before I go into how much worse she can get, I'll show a screenshot of what she sent to the owner of a particular group chat. It is cut and censored for the sake of both individuals' discord accounts and the girlfriend.

Now to be clear, she both doxxed who the girlfriend was to the owner of that group chat, and completely misconstrued their relationship just to get him out of the group chat she was in (just know, he barely talked in the group chat Aria was in). And want to make it clear, the owner should not be in trouble, they wouldn't have known otherwise who to believe.

Now, as another example, here's some other screenshots of a conversation between his girlfriend (she consented to these being shown, just censored a bit), and Aria after getting him kicked, which shows that she doesn't care for the actual privacy of people like she did for Nebby.

Can you fucking please stop telling lies about my and [REDACTED]'s relationship!?

21:25 ✓

I told one person. And thats why i wanted him removed from a gc im in, He's the one that's gone out and told everyone else

21:27

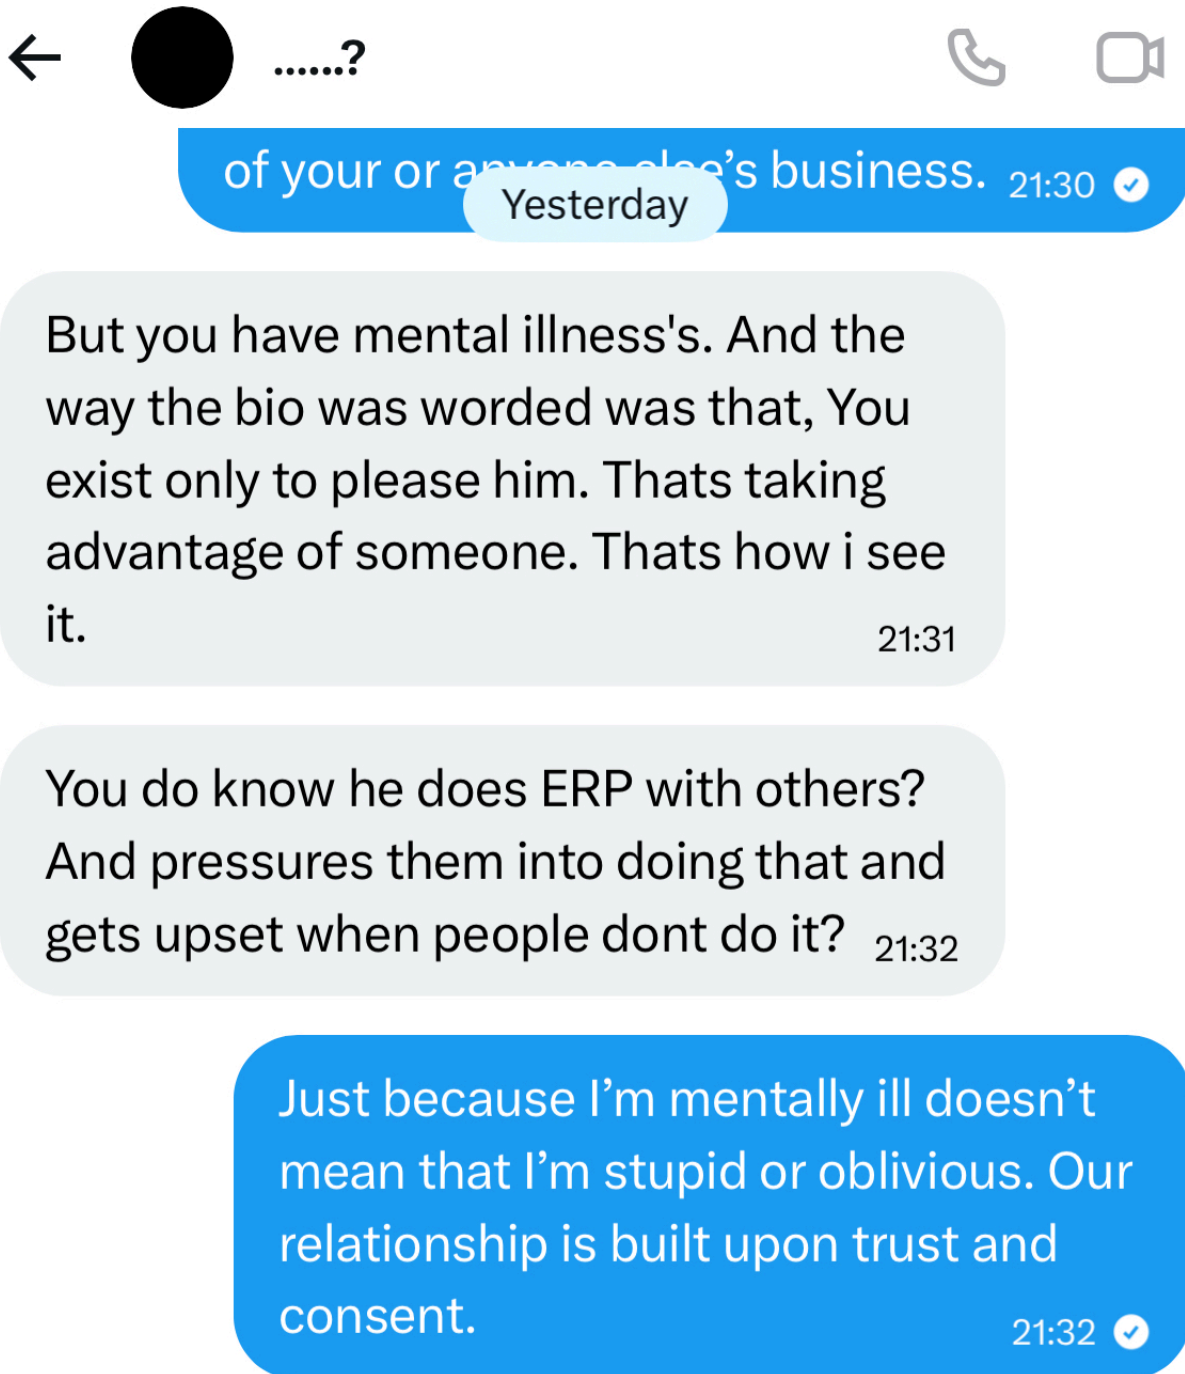

Wdym? 21:28 ✓

I told litten only about the bio. i told nobody else xd.

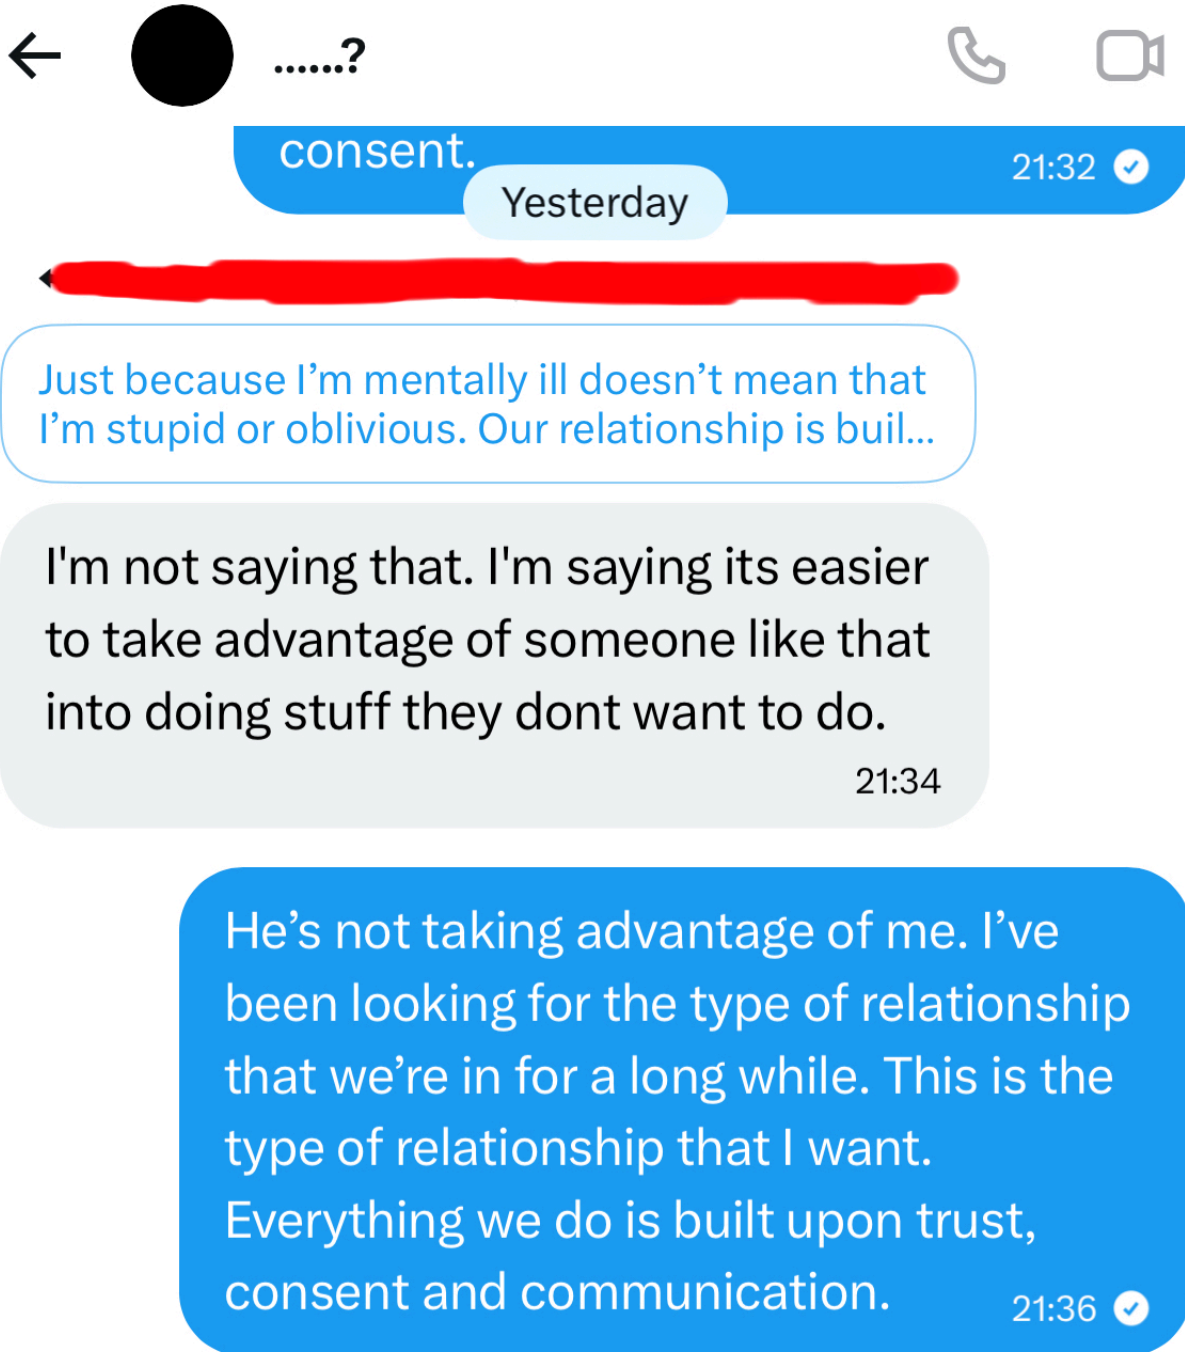

21:28

It doesn't matter if you told one person or 100 people. Our relationship is none of your or anyone else's business. 21:30 ✓

She directly says she told it to a kid, and with a “xd” at the end of admitting it, which shows that she thought her actions were justified, but that's not all of it.

What we see here is that she didn't ask any questions or relinquished for context on the relationship, she just looked at it a single time before sending it to Litten with the request just to get him out of the group chat, and it worked, Litten doesn't believe my friend when he tried to explain it (he's not good at wording himself to begin with).

Again, here's the proof that Aria didn't ask for any information, on top of assuming the girlfriend didn't have any autonomy of her own.

consent and communication.

He's not taking advantage of me. I've been looking for the type of relationship that we're i...

Just looking out for people. I don't mean to cause harm. I find that odd. Because I know how [Redacted] is.

21:38

Because to me. [Redacted] always wants erp with people. And. He might take advantage of someone that isnt as capable of understanding, Just because he loves erp so much

21:39

Now this feels like she's being intentionally bad faith just because she has had a problem with my friend for a while, and so, decided to assume the absolute worst of my friend to her own benefit.

he loves erp so much

Yesterday

21:39

Well you are causing harm. Especially by telling others, because rumours and misunderstandings can quickly spread on the internet.

And so what if he loves erp??? He's an adult, he's allowed to be into those things, and for the record, I'm into erp too. And it's extremely bold of you to act like you understand me, just because I'm mentally ill. Believe that mentally ill people are "less capable" of understanding things is actually extremely ableistic.

21:44 ✓

HE'S AT THE FUCKING HOSPITAL NOW
BECAUSE OF YOU.

21:48 ✓

Now, for a minor bit of context, my friend has some physical health issues. So the stress of her doing this to him caused him to have to go to the hospital for the sake of his health. And what's next, Aria being so indifferent of finding that out.

BECAUSE OF YOU

Well you are causing harm. Especially by telling others, because rumours and misunderstanding...

I just wanted him removed from the wholesome house because having him in a gc makes me uncomfortable. I told litten he can tells others if he wants. And he told others. Which i should have just said no. So thats a mistake on my part.

21:50

YOU COULD'VE JUST SAID THAT YOU WANTED HIM REMOVED. YOU DID NOT HAVE TO TELL PEOPLE ABOUT SUCH PRIVATE MATTERS. ESPECIALLY NOT TO LITTEN WHO'S A FUCKING MINOR.

NOW THANKS TO YOU PEOPLE ARE GOING TO THINK THAT HE'S ABUSIVE, WHEN HE'S NOT.

You cannot message this user because they are blocking you from sending messages to them.

This opens the door to how Aria really is, if she doesn't like you, she won't truly care about you, and like this, she didn't apologize or try to fix anything at all, thankfully, the day Litten removed him from the chat, he outright said not to ask him why (thankfully).

Now for something just as bad as being unapologetic in the face of someone who had gone to the hospital, I found out something about Naveen very recently during the making of this: he's a minor.

Like you did to me? I know how that made me feel so I ain't doing that to you.

Aria is trying to force Naveen to insult her or even block her, honestly in my opinion, to make herself feel like a victim and guilt trip him into bending the knee to whatever she wants. And from the ss, it reads like she insulted Naveen before too.

Furry ❤️  6:53 PM

I HURT YOU. BECAUSE THATS ALL I CAN EVER DO APPARENTLY. I DONT DESERVE TO HAVE FRIENDS. LET ALONE ONES WHO CARE ABOUT ME.

I don't have much to say about this, it reads like Naveen is still being kind to her in this situation despite what Aria did prior to this situation. I have a couple other things of her bringing up things out of nowhere. Now to be clear. These were different moments between Aria and him.

I haven't been able to cry in 10 months :p

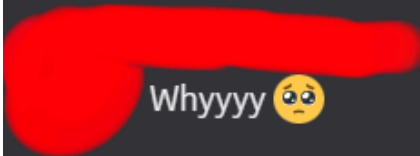

I have to be upfront about this, I'm uncomfortable reading this, it feels legitimately wrong how she can be so open with some she barely knows at the time (this is when she begun talking with my friend and frankly, it's fucking weird how she is so open about this stuff.)

A tangent awakened in me I feel is that, it is true people do respond to trauma different, I don't think someone would repeatedly voice that they have trauma repeatedly or voice how they can't do something unbelievable like crying (for ten months mind you), even when she voiced her brother and parent abuse her, I just don't believe it, especially when it comes to that image with the plushies, if there was direct abuse, why would she have been allowed to have a pc, a Switch 2, or even a PS5 (rather pricey items individually). I just don't believe her when she acts so unchecked, indifferent and uncaring about others who could suffer in the same way she apparently has, on top of constantly being terminally online on Discord to rp and or be shown playing games on her PS5.

Wich seem easy for you is not for me, I'm not as strong than you mentally, I am trying hard, I am not talking actively about the fact he used me to get erp, he used my mental disability at his advantage, if I wasn't trying like you FUCKING say, I WOULD HAD NOT EVEN STOPPED TALKING ABOUT ALL THE SHIT HE DID TO ME

OH BECAUSE FOR YOU I'M NOT EVEN TRYING, YOU.... I've been trying hard enough by showing th...

Aria! ♡ 🐾 MEOW 17/05/2026 02:54
BE MAD AT ME., I DONT CARE. I CAN SEE RIGHT THROUGH YOU [REDACTED] I KNOW YOU ARENT TRYING AS HARD AS YOU COULD BE. YOU'RE STRONG MENTALLY TO NOT HAVW THIS PUSH YOU BEYOND THE LIMIT. IM JUST GOOD AT FORGETTING ABOUT THINGS.

The final thing I have to say about this is it just shows how insensitive Aria is to the mental health of my friend during one of his lower moments of weakness.)

And finally, Naveen highlighted (but the friend pointed out too) this particular set of things he noticed she did often with three types of behavior: joking around, trying to be overly serious, and emotionally cold.

Oh well guess what! I am. I promised I wouldn't leave you and I intended not to. But you broke something that day. Something that can't be mended. And honestly i was gonna give you a chance till i saw how you acted after! And honestly? I'm not gonna accuse you of anything as I don't want to think you'd lie but your attempted suicide was very fishy. Not remembering anything, getting let out the same day, no mental tests or even sent to a mental facility for an attempted suicide? Well gee, consider it suspicious. But I'm not gonna call you a liar. Just suspicious. And the way you acted when I confronted you shocked me. You went through THREE different tactics that seemed very manipulative. First, you tried to defend your actions, okay. Then when that didn't work you tried to get me to insult you and you were saying "I hurt you, I deserve it" which seemed guilt trippy and then going to saying you'd hurt yourself. This happened in VERY QUICK SUCCESSION. The way you acted was just beyond me. Then sending that post about minors not making docs? When I didn't make a doc? With that are you suggesting I SHOULDNT have exposed sol cause I'm a minor? Well, there you have it. Broke my trust, then shattered it.

Voir moins

Finally, my conclusion about all of that is that she is very manipulative person, she guilt trips people (using excuses like her dog died or she feeling mentally unwell), tries to act sensitive and playful (such as dropping innocent gifts or playing one of her characters), and of course, shows little to no remorse to her friends if they crossed her even once (she wasn't against Nebby being canceled and even stalking him on Discord as they put it, then switched side the second Naveen said something she didn't like). She also seeks attention, whether putting herself on hiatus for mental health, or garnering attention on discord with friends of hers.

Now to end off, my opinion on Aria reads like this; I think she's an emotionally immature and reckless individual that will follow her emotions in a heartbeat, backstab friends because they say or do something she doesn't like, will spitefully do things to make sure the people that 'wronged' her suffer (such as how she has treated Naveen in the past and twisting truths just so she doesn't have to deal with my friend. And when all else fails, she'll attempt to guilt trip or double down on others just to try justifying her own actions or making herself look like a victim).
