Hi Olamide, can we do it at 14.00 CEST? I'm still outside. It would be a bit noisy and windy to talk to you.

Olamide Soyoye • 10:56 AM

Okay

That works for me

Talk to you later

Olamide Soyoye • 1:03 PM

Hello Derwish. It's time for our meeting

Wow thanks yes I need to hire a media person/ do you do this?

Olamide Soyoye • 3:24 PM

Your about section is also not detailed enough.

Linkedin gives you an opportunity to share more of your work, breakdown your process, share testimonials, include why they need to work with you now, etc to your about section

And most importantly, you have to make keyword research to include the right keywords that would help your profile rank.

You also need to set up your endorsement so that people can endorse you for your skills

The more the right skills are endorsement on your profile, the more your profile ranks for those skill sets

Dana: Wow thanks yes I need to hire a media person/ do you do this?

Yes

That's what I specialize in

Mind if we hop on a brief call to discuss how I can help your brand and my rates?

Olamide Soyoye • 3:29 PM

I'm here to help if you need more direction

Another proof:

I was able to convert this financial coach and founder through a short DM sequence

(No desperation, no robotic message tone, no forceful pitching or annoying followings)
