

I recommend that you use some sort of notetaker as you research your chosen revolution or rights movement. Here's one you are welcome to use that I made for you. You're welcome :)

To get a copy of this, make sure you're logged into Google Drive. Then click on File → Make a copy. Make sure to move this new document into your world history folder!

Important Person/Event	Impact the person/event had

Revolutions Model for your chosen event or revolution

Conditions that angered people	Reason people believed they deserved better	Trigger event

Other Notes

Which thinker (Montesquieu, Locke, Rousseau, Beccaria, or Voltaire) would most agree with your revolution/movement?

French Revolution links (click on the flowchart link on the right side of each of the links below for a more visual version of the events)

- Roots of the revolution
- Start of the revolution
- Revolution heats up
- Terror in the revolution
- Rise of Napoleon
- Napoleon's rule and fall

Similarities to the French Revolution

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Differences from the French Revolution

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Sources

- 1.

- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.