

Headline: AK Tha Razorman Drops New Single "Bounce Back Zone" via Dictator Records

Dateline: Atlanta, GA — September 13, 2025

AK Tha Razorman, an original member of T.I.'s acclaimed P$C collective, has released his latest single, "Bounce Back Zone," through Dictator Records. The new track, produced by Wicked, marks Razorman's official debut under the Dictator Records banner and signals a renewed creative push from the veteran artist as he returns to the spotlight with gritty lyricism and streetwise swagger.

"Bounce Back Zone" blends hard-hitting beats with a resilient message, reflecting both personal perseverance and the collective hustle of the streets. Wicked's production lays a raw, urgent foundation for Razorman's commanding delivery, balancing booming low end with sharp percussive elements that drive the track forward. Fans of classic Southern hip-hop will recognize the tonal nods to P$C's legacy while hearing Razorman sharpen his voice for today's scene.

Signing with Dictator Records gives AK Tha Razorman a new platform to expand his reach and release music that stays true to his roots. The partnership is designed to spotlight Razorman's veteran perspective while tapping into modern promotional channels to bring his music to new audiences. With "Bounce Back Zone" now available across major streaming services, Dictator Records plans additional singles and visual content to support the rollout and reignite interest in Razorman's catalog.

"Working with Dictator Records and Wicked felt like the right move at the right time," said AK Tha Razorman. "This record is about resilience — about getting back up and moving forward no matter what. I wanted a sound that hit hard and felt real, and Wicked delivered. We're just getting started."

The release comes at a time when interest in Atlanta's hip-hop pioneers continues to grow, and Razorman's return connects long-time fans with fresh material. "Bounce Back Zone" is positioned to resonate both on playlists and in live settings, offering DJ-friendly dynamics and a memorable hook that underscores Razorman's veteran presence.
