GUIDELINES

USES

Commercial Use: Commissions that will be used in merchandise or otherwise sold in any form. Example: book cover, t-shirt print. It is necessary to disclose with me immediately the intended use of this commission. Be aware that this use requires explicit credit given to the artist.

Personal Use: Commission that will be used privately. Example: tokens or headshots for TableTop RPG, digital wallpaper, printed poster, profile picture, tattoo. No need for credit, no need to specify use further.

Advertising: Commission that will be used to advertise products, events or represent something larger. Example: assets for posters, emblems. Use should be disclosed. Credit is encouraged but not required.

YOU CAN

- Request raising the price for an earlier delivery
- Request non human characters
- Request minor gore
- Request OCs and/or existing characters (fanart)
- Request illustrations of real people
- Request ships (Canon or not)

YOU CANNOT

- Request mecha characters
- Request explicit content
- Request offensive content
- Request a personal commission and then use it commercially
- Request raising the price to break the aforementioned rules

Thinking about commissioning? Here are the next steps:

1. Think about what you want
2. Consider what category it fits in
3. Consider the use you will make of it
4. Consider the potential price of your commission
5. Either DM me on instagram @murphyodasari or e-mail me at murphyodasari@gmail.com with your request
6. We will talk about the specifics of the commission
7. I will tell you the final price and delivery deadline
8. Pay half the price on agreement and the other half after completion (Paypal for digital transactions. If preferred, Drew students may pay in cash)
