

THE DR. JOHN D. ROWLETT ENDOWED FUND FOR FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP, RESEARCH, OR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Call for Applications:

The Society of Foundation Professors invites applications for the Dr. John D. Rowlett Endowed Fund for Faculty Scholarship, Research, or Professional Development. This $5,000 award honors the memory and generosity of Dr. John D. Rowlett, whose career at ECU (1951-1993) nurtured curiosity, creativity, and quality instruction. The Rowlett Award Selection Committee will review and select the successful applicant. The recipient will be recognized at the annual Society of Foundation Professors banquet in April and will provide a short presentation on their award activities at the banquet the following year.

Eligibility:

- Be a full-time tenured member of the teaching faculty at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, OR
- Be a retired ECU faculty member at the above ranks, OR
- Be an Independent Scholar with a demonstrated history of utilization of ECU research services

Application:

- Application Cover Sheet
- Written narrative (not to exceed 1,000 words) that proposes a creative, scholarly, or research project that demonstrates consistency with one's formal academic training, discipline, field of study, or teaching responsibilities, including a brief discussion of how the award would contribute to the completion of the project
- One letter of recommendation from a scholar outside ECU, submitted directly to the chair of the Rowlett Award Selection Committee
- Curriculum vitae

Submission & Timeline:

All materials should be submitted electronically in PDF format, to Dr. Kelli Carmean, Chair, Rowlett Award Selection Committee, at kelli.carmean@retiree.ecu.edu no later than February 1 (or date of following business day) of the calendar year. Applicants will be notified no later than April 1 of the calendar year.
