

FIRST READING: 03/09/2005
04/25/2022

ADOPTED: 04/13/2005

REAFFIRM:

Professional Staff Positions

Responsibilities and Duties of Teachers

The teacher shall be academically qualified in the area they are to instruct and should demonstrate a competence at transmitting learning to the student and the manner and means of accumulating, assimilating, and evaluating the knowledge associated with their academic field. The teacher should demonstrate an awareness of other academic fields and should possess a reasonable and responsible attitude toward the education of the whole child.

The teacher shall constantly be alert to the example presented to students, parents, community, and fellow workers, consistently striving to exemplify positive behavior. The teacher will avoid personal attachments to students.

The teacher must be aware of various instructional trends and participate in exploration of possible changes in method or content of instruction.

The teacher shall demonstrate an ability to control the situations encountered in the performance of duties while exhibiting proper respect for the dignity and worth of each individual.

The teacher shall demonstrate the ability to defend the objectives of instruction and the ability to assess the results of the efficiency and effectiveness of the instruction.

A basic teaching assignment is described as follows: The teacher will instruct regular classes; properly prepare lessons and tests; properly correct all assigned work; evaluate student work; use care in filling out requested forms and reports; supervise bus arrivals and departures, playgrounds, cafeteria, hallways as special assignment, and as general phase of daily work; make use of the extra help periods; accept and perform duties as advisor to classes or clubs (including chaperoning occasional nighttime activities, report to the assigned building on days as scheduled by the Superintendent; attend other affairs which are periodic in nature, such as teachers' meetings, department meetings, and community affairs directly related to the School; and actively participate in the School program. Each teacher is required to carry out assignments from the District Administrator in conformance with School Board policies and regulations of the Board and the District Administrator

Subject to Collective Bargaining Provisions and individual teaching contracts.