Hi [name of manager],

I'd like to expense a subscription to Design Better. It's a weekly podcast and newsletter covering topics in design, technology, and creativity relevant to my role.

It costs $150/year ($15/month). I believe my Design Better subscription will help me advance the knowledge related to the responsibilities I hold in the organization. I am confident that this will also provide a noticeable improvement in my job performance.

Let me know if you're fine with this.

Thanks,
