If any of you use Comic Sans again I'm going to cut off your network access. Or maybe send a demon after you. A high level one.

Do you people not realize there is a discussion section in which large changes can be mulled over by the majority as opposed to a single upstart?

All of this should have gone there.

Isn't this much better? - Atsuro

NO

I see the encryption has randomly changed the letters Y-E-S to N-O wow that's a really weird coincidence!!

HERE'S ANOTHER WEIRD COINCIDENCE: IT'S ALL GONE NOW

I'm sure it doesn't work that way.

Look I know none of you know anything about technology but trust me nothing is getting through security with me on board. It's a shame I didn't try this earlier.

"Nothing" is right... including everyone else! This is too much!

I'll teach a few crash courses in computer science! We'll start tomorrow morning at 6:00.

...this is an in-doc image, I think. Nothing's happening when I click on it.

^^^x

see why we need encryption

see

see

...Atsuro. Did you deliberately add this thing to justify your paranoid security measures?

.....If I did

Would I really put Junpei as the representative

I mean

Wait nobody saw that

I did! You'd better take that back! - Miki

Considering I don't know the person you were talking about..

Atsuro, I kind of consider you a friend after that one time you got me to the hospital and everything, so I am saying this with only the utmost consideration and affection: Are you gay? Gay for Junpei? Do you need help asking him out?

When I make my fifteen passwords I'm giving you ones that swap out all the Is for 1s

I'm being serious here, you know! I mean, I am kind of...openly bisexual? I made a huge post about it on the network and all? So it's not like I have a problem with it or anything.

here is the first password: kotohaisameaniejerkfaceandalsorude (kotoha for you specifically the first password is kotoha1samean1ejerkfaceandalsorude)

I was trying to be nice!

...well okay no I was only half trying to be nice, the other half was just me messing with you for kicks.

I was serious about helping you asking him out if that's what you want!

This is a document to discuss the astrological events

Let's keep this professional

This, from the person that's using a password to sling insults?

(the second password is 'wowkotohaseriously')

Oh right, you're from Japan, aren't you? You're not used to using birth signs as romantic shorthand, are you? 'Hey baby, what's your sign' is practically a cliché...I think Gramma Sakura once said something about...uh...blood type?

...actually, now that I think about it, a lot of the Visitors are from Japan, aren't they? I wonder why...

...That's actually a good question. Hinoto-Ri is in Japan, but I doubt that's all there is to it.

SEE WHY WE NEED ENCRYPTION

Who is even doing that

What the heck, probably the same people who put in the stupid teenbeat thing.

Can we just stop this, please?

Who makes a website about that anyway?

I get the feeling I'm missing some context here...

Fangirls I bet... -Miki

No, what we're missing is common sense and actual maturity. When you all find some I'll come back.

Thank you.

...wow, Atsuro, your chin is super pointy looking here. Also I think I detect eyeliner??

There's nothing wrong with eyeliner!! - Michel

I'm crying on the inside

And also the outside

My eyes don't look that arched do they it's like a cat

Maybe it's just a deluxe paint pro 2 edit, bro - Michel

that's a cute webpage but what is it going here? - Michel

Hey is that me up there

whoa yeeeeeeeeaaaaah

Junpei is that you? -Miki

Guys, the encryption on this is literally the worst thing I've ever seen. You should all download what you need now; I'm going to revamp it tonight. It could take a while. I'll send you all the fifteen passwords you need to decode the first paragraph as an example tomorrow morning; we need to make sure this is absolutely 100% secure so that it will be preserved for future use. - Atsuro

...more secure than being on a server that only Visitors can access?

Do we not remember the sentient computer viruses

Like seriously this was a month ago

...wait, really?

.....Anyway I think my point stands.

The first password is jKl3925No.g,$%^(@5(ddterinTERlksJA0%#@k,.ciTn!

It will randomly change every 15 minutes though; this will be the password to decode the daily 15 passwords.

...listen, Atsuro. There's a difference between being concerned about security and being....look, I don't even have words for whatever it is you're doing here.

This is very bright, could you please use a different color?

I don't think anyone is going to remember that, let alone how to use it.

also who did the comic sans

...you are typing this DIRECTLY ABOVE THE SIGNED NOTE TAKING CREDIT FOR IT
HAVE SOME SELF-AWARENESS

(I changed it to a cuter font! I hope no one minds. ~Nano)

THEY BETTER NOT

Hooooo it needs a better color tho chica! - Eikichi

Please use colors that everyone can read.

Why does this keep popping up? Who is this asshole? Why should I vote for him? Why is this here? Get rid of that hat, dammit.

Didn't he organize that baseball game a while ago? He's alright.

Oh, well fair enough. He gets a seven out of ten.

Hey don't insult Junpei-senpai! Only I get to do that! - Miki

I. Introduction

This is an incomplete guide to astrological signs intended as a free resource to anyone who wishes to use it. The document can be edited by anyone who has access to it. Therefore, people are encouraged to add or correct any information as necessary. The goal of this document is to inform viewers of their astrological signs and collect as much information on each sign as possible. Other uses include the forming of hypotheses regarding future zodiac events and outbreaks.

II. List of Astrological Signs

Aries ♈ - The Ram

March 21st - April 19th

Ruling Element: Fire

Quality: Cardinal - Designates the beginning of spring

Ruling Planet: Mars

Common Personality Traits:

Independent, generous, optimistic, enthusiastic, courageous. Suited to leadership and taking the initiative. Aggressive, but adventurous. Moody, short tempered, self-involved, impulsive, impatient.

In Greek mythology, the constellation of Aries is associated with the golden ram that rescued Phrixos and Helle on orders from Hermes. It was later sacrificed by Phrixos to Zeus.

In Egyptian astronomy, it is associated with the god Amon-Ra, who is depicted with the head of a ram. It symbolizes fertility and creativity.

Hiya! My name's Kotoha, and I thought I'd just add in some info about the system back home. This, uh...'Aries' thing is called Whimsicott where I'm from - it's associated with the Grass type. Whimsicott evolves from Cottonee, and is a Pokemon focused on shutting down opponents indirectly by crippling their ability to fight. Besides Grass, it also has some connection to the Flying type - it can whip up windstorms and glide on the breeze.

What. - Eikichi

I thought I was being perfectly straightforward!

...hey, someone really did change the font color on my explanation! NOT COOL. I thought my eyes were going bad or something. Right, fixing that RIGHT NOW, I can't read that weird grey color.

Um, it's kind of hurting my eyes...

WHO TOOK A PHOTO OF ME AND PLACED IT INTO AN ADVERTISEMENT WITHOUT MY PERMISSION!!!!

Taurus ♉ - The Bull

April 20th - May 20th

Ruling Element: Earth

Quality: Fixed - Continuation of spring.

Ruling Planet: Venus

Common Personality Traits:

Dependable, persistent, loyal, patient, generous, stubborn, laziness, possessive, materialistic, self-indulging. Closed off from others. As a fixed sign, they are associated with stabilization, determination, depth, and persistence.

In the Epic of Gilgamesh, the goddess Ishtar sends Taurus, the Bull of Heaven, to kill Gilgamesh for refusing her advances. He was associated with Innana, goddess of sexual love, fertility, and warfare.

In Greek mythology, Taurus represents the form taken by Zeus in order to abduct the Phoenician princess Europa and carry her across the sea to Crete.

In Egyptian astrology, Taurus was a sacred bull associated with the renewal life in the spring.

This one's Bouffalant back home - it's a Normal type. They're highly territorial, and their thick afros muffle the shock of impacts, so when they charge they can do some tremendous damage. We're talking 'trains reroute around their habitat' levels here, got it?

Heh heh now I'm imaginig Ginko with an afro.... - Michel

You misspelled 'imagining', champ.

"Possessive" sounds about right, given what happened for this sign's event...

Okay, I don't even recognize this guy...does he even have eyebrows? I can't tell.

Gemini ♊ - The Twins

May 21st - June 21st

Ruling Element: Air

Quality: Mutable - between spring and summer seasons.

Ruling Planet: Mercury

Common Personality Traits:

Energetic, clever, imaginative, witty, adaptable, superficial, impulsive, restless, devious, indecisive. As a mutable sign, they are adjustable, understanding, analytic, and extroverted. Always on the move to something new.

In Babylonian myth, the twins are minor gods and were called Meshlamtaea and Lugalirra, meaning respectively 'The One who has arisen from the Underworld' and the 'Mighty King'. Both names can be understood as titles of Nergal, the major Babylonian god of plague and pestilence, who was king of the Underworld.

In Greek mythology, the constellation is associated with the twins Castor and Pollux, the children of Leda. Pollux was sired by Zeus and Castor by Tyndareus, king of Sparta. When Castor died as a mortal, Pollux begged Zeus to grant him immortality, and the two were reunited as a constellation.

This one's Klink, a Steel-type with the ability to generate electricity. They didn't actually exist until the start of the Industrial Revolution, when they just sort of...showed up, probably because that's when cogs and gears were invented. They literally would not exist if it weren't for humans!

This whole "different zodiac system" is really interesting! Especially the part where...Klink?...shows up when humans start making machines.

There's a bunch of Pokemon based on man-made things, actually - like the Magnemite family, which are Steel/Electric types that can fly using electromagnetism. I have a Magnezone!

Wow. Do you think the demons here are like that too? They ARE from different legends...how does it work over there, or is it just a thing that happens?

Igor once said that Demons and Gods came from Mankind maybe it's the same there?

Huh. I don't think Pokemon are like that, barring a few exceptions...I mean, the Porygon line are literally sapient computer code that became a Pokemon family. And then there's Castform - it was created directly by a bunch of high level genetic experts. They're popular with certain kinds of gimmick teams because of their ability to freely manipulate the weather.

Dude. @___@ Your world sounds INTENSE.

It's a lot of fun! I'm trying to work out a way to download a Porygon onto my Pokedex for a friend!

Hold on hold on...you're telling me some Pokemon can control the weather, and that you guys made them? Next you'll tell me your trash comes to life too! - Michel

Not trash. Pollution, though - Grimer, Koffing, and Trubbish. I think Grimer were formed when polluted water absorbed moonlight or something? Not sure about Koffing, but they're basically big old sacks of poison gas. And Trubbish were originally...uh, I think it was toxic waste that was improperly handled? I don't really work with Poison-types much outside of where they cross over with some of my secondary teams - I mean, I have a Gengar, at least...hm. ...Koffing, Grimer, and Trubbish...that make might an interesting themed team. I might have to play around with that. Maybe ask Roxie for help....

All these names sound really cute, omg...

Cancer ♋ - The Crab

June 22nd - July 22nd

Ruling Element: Water

Quality: Cardinal - the beginning of summer.

Ruling Planet: Moon

Common Personality Traits: Loyal, dependable, caring, adaptable, responsive, moody, clingy, self-pitying, over sensitive, self-absorbed. Contradictory in nature, simultaneously cold and hard on the outside and soft beneath the shell.

In mythology, Cancer is associated with Karkinos the crab, sent by Hera to distract Heracles in his battle with the Hydra during his twelve labors. It was either kicked with such force it became a constellation in the sky, or crushed underfoot and then made into a constellation by a grateful Hera. May have been added to the myth later to correspond with astrological signs.

Desco is a Cancer! It fits because of her beautiful chitin~

...chitin? Okay, moving on! This one's Crustle, a dual type Rock/Bug. Big on defense and sitting in the way like a big lump and blocking the darn road - ahem. Moving on!

Booo - Michel

There I fixed it - Michel

Leo ♌ - The Lion

July 23rd - August 21st

Ruling Element: Fire

Quality: Fixed - continuation of summer.

Ruling Planet: Sun

Common Personality Traits: Confident i'll give him that, ambitious maybe, generous sure why not, loyal okay that's true, encouraging LIES, pretentious ahahahahahahahahaha, domineering will you even understand that word Tachan, melodramatic more like meldramnottalkalot, stubborn hell yes, vain ahahaha. As a fixed sign, they are associated with stabilization ahahaha, determination, depth, and persistence. Ruled by the heart, relationships are important to them, but they are just as capable of cutting ties completely they also like to make motorcycle sounds.

EXCUSE ME WHAT IS THIS.

Just the truth, Tachan!

In Greek mythology, Leo is the Nemean Lion killed by Heracles in his twelve labors.

Braviary! I hear folks over in Japan call 'em Wargle, which sounds more like something you'd say after getting blasted with a fire hose, but that's just me. Flying-types, pretty much dedicated to all-out offense.

That's Tatsuya's sign! I don't know if you could call him stable. Sorry bro! At least it's good to know you're able to let go, I was worried for a minute about you.

You're about as sexy as a wet blanket, so I guess we can call it even.

Tch! You're just jealous of my physique, Tachan!

I thought you were supposed to be the "jealous" one.

Shut up! I see "pretentious" up there for you!

It's not pretentious if you can back yourself up, sorry.

I'm sure if we had a 'whose more sexy' contest, I'd win! Even with your book fangirls!

I'm sure you would if people were really into clowns.

THAT'S VISUAL KE!!!! THERE'S NOTHING CLOWNISH ABOUT MY LOOK!...CAN WE NOT EVEN TALK ABOUT CLOWNS, CONSIDERING?!?!

...Right, sorry. Maybe "peacock" would fit better.

Well they are considered beautiful birds...thanks for the compliment, bro!

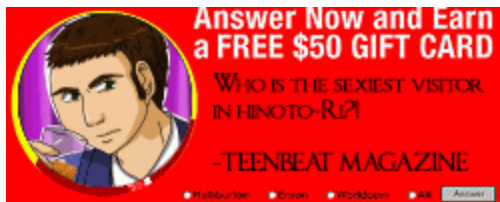

..."Compliment". Right.

Why are you putting it in brackets?

No reason~~

...You're really something, Tachan.

Just get a room already, you two.

Virgo ♍ - The Virgin

August 23rd - September 22nd

Ruling Element: Earth

Quality: Mutable - between summer and autumn.

Ruling Planet: Mercury

Common Personality Traits: Analytical, observant, helpful, reliable, precise, skeptical, fussy, inflexible, cold, interfering. As a mutable sign, they are adjustable, understanding, analytic, and extroverted. Born to serve, and excel at their work.

In Babylonian mythology, Virgo is representative of the goddess Shala's ear of grain or corn, which associates it with fertility.

In Greek mythology it is associated with the goddess Demeter, the virgin goddess, or Astraea, holder of the scales (Libra). Has also been identified as Erigone, daughter of Icarius who hung herself in sorrow at her father's death. Dionysus favored her father and reunited the two as constellations.

In the middle ages, it is sometimes associated with the Virgin Mary.

Gothorita, a Psychic type that can see the future in the stars. I've seen a few of the fully-evolved ones, Gothitelle. Popular with Trainers that are Psychics themselves, although I've never had any of those gifts. Even my spoon-bending trick is just sleight-of-hand instead of actual telekinesis. Although I have met a few Psychics that tell me my destiny of absolute victory makes it nearly impossible to accurately read my future! Something about a 'glowing light'.

Libra ♎ - The Scales

September 23rd - October 22nd

Ruling Element: Air

Quality: Cardinal - the beginning of autumn.

Ruling Planet: Venus

Common Personality Traits: Diplomatic, graceful, peaceful, idealistic, hospitable, superficial, vain, indecisive, unreliable. Seek to find another to balance themselves, even when they would be better off alone.

In Babylonian astronomy, Libra was known either as the scales or the Claws of the Scorpion. The scales were held sacred by the sun god Shamash, who also represented truth and justice.

In Greek astronomy, they were also recognized as the scorpion's claw.

In Roman mythology, Libra is considered the scales held by Astraea, goddess of justice.

This is my jam! Lampent, dual type Fire/Ghost. The blue flame is the souls of the dead it captures and burns as fuel.

...I met a Baker once that uses her Lampent to bake bread. I decided not to eat the fresh roll she gave me.

Scorpio ♏ - The Scorpion

October 23rd - November 21st

Ruling Element: Water

Quality: Fixed - the continuation of autumn.

Ruling Planets: Mars and Pluto

Common Personality Traits: Loyal, passionate, resourceful, observant, dynamic, jealous, obsessive, suspicious, manipulative, unyielding. As a fixed sign, they are associated with stabilization, determination, depth, and persistence. Strong desire to know, tend to see things in black and white well that's because it's perfect makeup colors, hoooo! - Michel.

In Greek mythology, a scorpion was sent by Artemis to battle with the hunter Orion who boasted that he would kill every animal in the world. The scorpion bested him in battle, impressing Zeus who raised the scorpion to the sky as a constellation.

Scoli-Scoli-Scolipede~ Bug/Poison, very strong. Gym Leader Roxie has one! Not much to say, it's a six-foot long centipede. Nothing really special comes to mind.

WHY ARE WE TALKING ABOUT BUGS?

What, you got a problem with Bug-types?

This is my sign, baaaby! ...I am not jealous, Michel's passionate! Didn't Jun say something about it being sexy too?! Cause I know I'm sexy! - Michel

...Bugs are to be loved.

Let's talking about bugs, more about me!

Shouldn't that be 'less'?

Are you a bug?

I'm Michel, babe! Gas Chamber's lead singer!

Is that a new type of bug?

No.

Oh.

Bye.

Aaa! Big Bro!

Sagittarius ♐ - The Archer

November 22nd - December 21st

Ruling Element: Fire

Quality: Mutable - between autumn and winter.

Ruling Planet: Jupiter

Common Personality Traits: Independent, unemotional. Strong sense of adventure and love of life. Honest, free-spirited, intellectual, can lack in tact. As a mutable sign, they are adjustable, understanding, analytic, and extroverted.

In Babylonian mythology, Sagittarius was identified as Nerigal/Nergal, a centaur-like figure with wings and a bow, and two heads - one human and one of a panther - as well as a raised scorpion's stinger.

In Greek mythology, Sagittarius is identified as a centaur. According to some it is Chiron, son of Philura and Saturn, who changed himself into a horse to escape his wife Rhea and was immortalized as the constellation.

Fraxure! Dragon-type. Huge tusks, basically an enormous beatstick. It's native to Unova and lives in caves. I have one named Prester John.

Obviously the answer is this guy.

Capricorn ♑ - The Sea Goat

December 22nd - January 19th.

Ruling Element: Earth

Quality: Cardinal - the beginning of winter.

Ruling Planet: Saturn

Common Personality Traits: responsible, patient, ambitious, resourceful, loyal, dictatorial, inhibited, conceited, distrusting, unimaginative. Diligent workers who will eventually make it to the top no matter what.

To the Babylonians, Capricorn is a symbol of the god Ea and marked the winter solstice. Ea is also known as Enki in Sumerian mythology.

In Greek mythology, it is sometimes identified as the goat who suckled Zeus after he was saved from his father Cronus by his mother Rhea. The goat's horn became the cornucopia, or horn of plenty. Other times it is identified as Pan, the god with a goat's head, who saved himself from a monster by giving himself a fish tail and diving into the water.

Sawsbuck! The foliage on their horns change with the seasons. Also they learn Jump Kick for some reason. You ever seen a quadruped do a flying jump kick? Super weird.

Oi, get me off of these or I'll keelhaul every last one of you!

Aquarius ♒ - The Water Bearer

January 20th - February 18th

Ruling Element: Air

Quality: Fixed - the continuation of winter.

Ruling Planets: Saturn, Uranus

Common Personality Traits: Witty, clever, humanitarian, inventive, original, stubborn, unemotional, sarcastic, rebellious, aloof. As a fixed sign, they are associated with stabilization, determination, depth, and persistence. Philanthropic, they wish to make the world a better place.

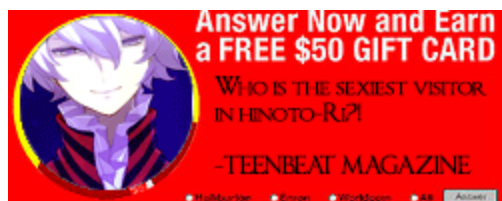

In Babylonian astrology, Aquarius represents Ea himself, bearing life-giving water. It could also represent the floods that frequently came during this time of the year.

Similarly, Aquarius represented the flooding of the Nile to the Egyptians.

In Greek mythology, Aquarius is associated with many different figures. One is Deucalion, son of Prometheus, who built a ship with his wife Pyrrha to survive a great flood. Another is Ganymede, the son of the Trojan king Tros who was kidnapped by Zeus to become a cupbearer on Olympus. The last is Cecrops I, an Athenian king who sacrificed water to the gods instead of wine.

Simipour! One of the elemental monkeys. Very popular - I usually ran into trainers with at least one of the monkeys all the time. Can shoot boiling water from their tails. I hear the triplets of the Striaton Cafe trained their monkeys to help them make tea.

That's Jun's sign! ...man I miss him already...he'd be good at this. - Michel

Pisces ♓ - The Fishes

February 19th - March 20th

Ruling Element: Water

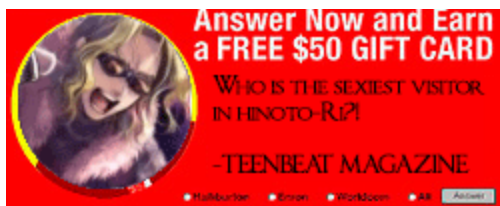

Quality: Mutable - between winter and spring.

Ruling Planets: Jupiter and Neptune

Common Personality Traits: Compassionate, adaptable, accepting, devoted, imaginative, oversensitive, indecisive, self-pitying, lazy, escapist. As a mutable sign, they are adjustable, understanding, analytic, and extroverted. Just as they are represented by two fish, their natures tend to be dualistic.

Associated with the German legend of Antenteh, a poor fisherman who met a magical fish. This fish offered him a wish, but he refused. When he returned home, his wife demanded he use the wish on a beautiful home, to which he complied. When the wish was granted, she demanded to be a queen in a palace, which was also granted. However, when the wife wanted to become a goddess, the fish became angry and returned their home to the simple cabin it once was.

Alomomola, a Water-type that specializes in healing support. I prefer straight offense in group battles, so I'm not that familiar with what they're capable of. Apparently they're covered in a membrane that heals wounds and neutralizes toxins?

III. Previous Zodiac Event Effects

Aries:

Taurus:

-Taurus Event:

4/26: received a mask, loss of self-control, aggressively attacked other signs.

It sucked. - Michel

Single-mindedly pursued objects or persons of affection.

Gemini:

-Taurus Event:

-4/26: Elements other than Fire sealed, "exaggerated" personality.

Cancer:

-Taurus Event:

-4/24: extreme paranoia, compulsory behavior, depowered Persona.

-4/26: return to senses, Persona remained depowered. Attracted bull-monsters and earth signs.

Leo:

- Scorpio Event:
 - Unbreakable fear effect, attracted scorpion monsters
- Taurus Event:
 - 4/26: Elements other than Fire sealed, "exaggerated" personality.

Virgo:

- Taurus Event:
 - 4/24: paranoia. overwhelming belief that "the world is ending"
 - 4/26: lost control, normal aspects of personality highly exaggerated, overwhelming urge to protect Taurus and attack other non-Earth signs, elements other than Earth sealed, grew horns, glowing eyes.

Libra:Scorpio:

- Scorpio Event:
 - received a mask, loss of self-control, aggressively attacked other signs.
- It sucked more. - Michel
- Taurus Event:
 - 4/24: extreme paranoia, compulsory behavior, depowered Persona.
 - 4/26: return to senses, Persona remained depowered. Attracted bull-monsters and earth signs.

Sagittarius:Capricorn:

- Taurus Event:
 - 4/24: paranoia. overwhelming belief that "the world was ending"
 - 4/26: lost control, normal aspects of personality highly exaggerated, overwhelming urge to protect Taurus and attack other non-Earth signs, elements other than Earth sealed, grew horns, glowing eyes.

Pisces:

- Taurus Event:
 - 4/24: extreme paranoia, compulsory behavior, depowered Persona.
 - 4/26: return to senses, Persona remained depowered. Attracted bull-monsters and earth signs.

IV: Chronology of Zodiac Events

1. Scorpio ♏ - The Scorpion: Water Sign. Governs October 23rd - November 21st

-Event Timeline: Missing Data

No government posting. This is the first instance of a Zodiac infection.

21 October, Year 1: Mass panic in citizens. Cause unknown.

22 October, Year 1: Scorpions begin to appear en masse.

-Monsters based on star sign a pattern thus far.

23 October, Year 1: Talk of a “gun” being tested in the field in the midst of mass panic.

-Anonymous responder mentions a weapon in the works. No response after.

The pattern behind the Scorpio event is discovered.

-First to document that it the infection is based on astrology. “Monsters are out.” Citizens and Persona users are asked not to use lethal means.

26 October, Year 1: Scorpio Event aftermath; calm restored. Note: this post is included to complete the timeline. It does not provide further information about the zodiac.

2. Taurus ♉ - The Bull: Earth Sign. Governs April 20th - May 20th

-Event Timeline:

20 April, Year 1: Government Posted Warning RE: Taurus.

-Information appeared to be based on the Scorpio event and some of it is incorrect. Affected sign is asked to give themselves up for containment (this idea was talked about during the Scorpio outbreak as a viable solution to the problem).

And then that guy punched me in the face for breaking down a wall! I had to go save my babe damnit!

21 April, Year 1: Citizen Response & Predictions

-Brief explanation of astrology. doubts are raised regarding the affected parties. More suspicion that the government is incorrect in diagnosing the outbreak aside from symptoms in Taurus.

23 April, Year 1: Taurus Symptoms Surfacing

-Normally aggressive individual acts violently more quickly than usual. Documented example of trait exaggeration due to the outbreak. NOTE: A Taurus attacked another Earth sign. Kinship with related signs had not occurred yet at this point in time.

26 April, Year 1: Contained Taurus break out. By the 13th hour, the Taurus monster appears & Virgo and Capricorn become completely infected.

27 April, Year 1: Infected parties return to normal.

28 April, Year 1: COMPNET confirmation (from a visitor) that Taurus have returned to a normal state.

-Apologies similar to this follow, along with research effort.

3. Virgo ♍ - The Virgin: Earth Sign. Governs August 23rd - September 22nd

-Event Timeline:

7 September, Year 2: Virgo Monster is defeated by government missile.

I get the feeling this isn't over, though...

Conclusions (current as of May 12):

-Both zodiac events have begun within the date the stars aligned for that particular sign. However, it was not the beginning date both times. i.e, Scorpio panic was shown on October 21, not the 23rd.

-Taurus was addressed from the start. The government is either at a loss as much as we are or it is omitting information. (Recall talk of a weapon to be tested in the field)

WHAT IS EVEN HAPPENING ANYMORE

These ads don't even have the right answer on them!

It's okay, though, I'm keeping him to myself. ☆≡(<^·ε·^<) - Minako

I could try making an ad for you if you want, Minako-senpai- Miki

WHY DO NONE OF THESE ADS HAVE ME ON THEM?!?! - MICHEL

Also when you think about it, what is the gift card going to do? Hinoto-ri doesn't even use dollars.

Maybe they were trying to include the non-Japanese visitors? or that's a 50 yen card but that's barely worth anything - MICHEL
