

Here for a little more detail on what's to come?

Have a look and reach out if any questions arise!

BETWEEN NOW AND YOUR WEDDING DAY:

We can't stress this enough: we're here for you!

We're always reachable via email for quick brainstorm sessions or recommendations. Don't hesitate to email us with any questions that come up as you put the pieces together.

But don't forget: you've got (2) phone/video planning meetings available at any time about anything! Schedule these for more in-depth chats about any part of the planning process that's giving you a headache. Talk through the timeline, discuss vendor arrangements, best layouts, anything.

6 MONTHS OUT:

Around the six month mark, keep an eye out for a meaty wedding planning questionnaire we'll send for you and your boo to fill out.

This form will help you work through all the nuts and bolts of your day—seating arrangements, layouts, guest book details, and one thousand other little things. These are the details that slip 98% of couples' minds. You don't plan a wedding every day (unless you're us!) so we'll make sure nothing falls between the cracks with this neurotic (sorry, not sorry) questionnaire.

6-8 WEEKS OUT:

Here's where we two-step into the planning party!

Your lead planner will connect with you around the 6 week mark to schedule an in-person meeting. This usually happens at the venue so we can envision your ideas for layout and setup. Here we'll go over everything you've planned and all that still needs to be done.

We'll cover:

- Your questionnaire answers
- Layouts
- Timeline
- Arrangements made with your other vendors
- [insert EVERYTHING else here]

We'll chat about your overall vision in excessive detail!

Around the 6 month mark as well, we'll touch base with all your vendors and introduce ourselves as their day-of point of contact on your big day.

You and your honey will still be in contact with these vendors regarding menu choices, final guest count, contracts, photo lists, etc., but we can handle any logistics and setup questions they may have.

2 WEEKS OUT:

We're so close!

At the two week mark, we'll schedule one last in-person meeting to go over any final details. We'll take inventory of your personal decor, so our team knows exactly where you'd like it all placed. Inspiration photos are a big help, but we're also pros at "prettying it up" if the vision is flexible.

We'll confirm any final changes with your vendors and venue. A final timeline, vendor contact list, and any relevant details will be sent to your vendor team about a week before the big day!

WEEK OF THE WEDDING:

THIS. IS. IT!

We have one last video meeting to polish the game plan and go over any last-minute details. We'll reconfirm rehearsal information and any pending items.

By now, everything's set and we're ready to get the show on the road!

WEDDING DAY

Nervous? No need. We're right here with you and we've got this!

We're at your full disposal on the big day. Your only job is to breathe easy, be among family and friends, and enjoy every second of marrying the love of your life!
