

Interpreting Critical Analyses of the Little Red Story

1

You read one critical analysis and then engaged in discussion board conversations about the different critical analyses that all students in the class read.

Now it's up to you: how do you interpret the Little Red story?

Write a 4-7 sentence paragraph in which you draw from the various critical analyses and discussion board conversations to create your own interpretation. You'll have 10-15 minutes. As always, write to share.
