

Washington's cougar hunting increase not aggressive enough June 16, 2020

The Spokesman-Review

... Washington's elk and deer numbers have plummeted in the last 24 years ... State biologists interviewed off the record for this article state that Washington deer and elk are failing massively due to our unwillingness to control predators...