

Directions for Completing Special Education Projection Form

- At top of the page, indicate the name of the teacher and the number of segments per school day
- Place only one grade level per page.
- Place only one eligibility per page.
- Teacher reports the first name, last initial, eligibility, grade level for the upcoming year, specific courses, number of segments in each setting per day, the total number of special education segments per day for each student on the caseload.