

Winthrop Middle School

Week of April 27th

Grade 6 - ELA

Mrs. Carsley/Mr. Beckvold/Ms. Schultheis

Below you will find a list of suggested activities to complete each day. Students are expected to complete their learning activities each day for their core subjects to the best of their abilities. In addition, students are encouraged to complete learning activities each day for two of their specials. During this time of our school closing, our goal is to provide student learning opportunities to engage our students. If you have any questions regarding the activities below, please contact your teacher at bcarsley@winthrop.k12.ma.us/ cbeckvold@winthrop.k12.ma.us/ mschultheis@winthrop.k12.ma.us/ acrombie@winthrop.k12.ma.us. You are also encouraged to attend your team's Office Hours.

Day/Date	Suggested Activities to Complete
Monday 4/27	Hi Grade 6! This week will continue our study of poetry. Please go to BrainPop: Read and review all the material related to Massachusetts poet Emily Dickinson. When you are finished, please take the Quiz on the Google Form for your class. Emily Dickinson Emily Dickinson Remember: BrainPop Login: atcumings Password: teach Next, Please go to CommonLit. Using the Guided Questions to check for understanding, read the poems "Fame is a Bee" and "Hope is the Thing with Feathers", both by Emily Dickinson. When you are finished, please answer the Assessment Questions. https://www.commonlit.org/en/texts/fame-is-a-bee https://www.commonlit.org/en/texts/hope-is-the-thing-with-feathers
Tuesday 4/28	Please read the poem "April is a Dog's Dream", and complete the assignments. April Is a Dog's Dream: Poem and Assignments
Wednesday 4/29	Please go to BrainPop. Read and review all the material related to poet Maya Angelou. When you are finished, please take the Quiz on the Google Form for your class. Maya Angelou Maya Angelou When you are done with the quiz, please go to this PBS website to learn more about her and to see and hear some of her work. When you open the page, you must click the "Launch" button. Your work will need to be done in Google Docs., not on the website. https://mass.pbslearningmedia.org/resource/ang17.ela.poetry/elements-of-poetry/ Read Page 1 Read/Listen/Watch Page 2; answer the question in the Google Doc. in the

	Google Classroom. Read/Listen/Watch Page 3; fill out the chart in the Google Doc.in the Google Classroom. PBS Learning: Elements of Poetry Activities 2.0
Thursday 4/30	Return to the PBS website. https://mass.pbslearningmedia.org/resource/ang17.ela.poetry/elements-of-poetry/ Read/Listen/Watch Pages 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 Complete the work on the Google Doc.for these pages. PBS Learning: Elements of Poetry Activities 2.0
Friday 5/1	Please go to CommonLit. Using the Guided Questions to check for understanding as you go, please read "The Rose That Grew from Concrete" by Tupac Shakur. When you are finished, please answer the Assessment Questions. https://www.commonlit.org/en/texts/the-rose-that-grew-from-concrete When you have completed the CommonLit.work, please answer the questions on the Google Doc. Then, complete the final assignment to the best of your ability. Final Assignment for the Week of April 27th