S.1 Provisions for non-print, digital and electronic resources are available

Partido State University ensures access to non-print, digital, and electronic resources that complement its traditional library holdings. The University Library subscribes to online databases and e-journals, while open educational resources and institutional repositories are made accessible to faculty and students. E-books, instructional videos, and multimedia content are available through the library portal and the university’s Learning Management System (LMS). Computer laboratories, and cloud-based storage also support the integration of digital and electronic resources in academic and research activities. These provisions strengthen access to updated knowledge and enhance the learning experience of students and faculty.

A. E-book and E-journal Subscriptions

The University Library subscribes to E-Book & E-Journal Subscriptions to provide easy and convenient access to up-to-date research, scholarly articles, e-books & e-journals.
