

CAGBN Spring 2025 SF Conference Sustainable Transportation Guide

- Getting a clipper card set up:
 - You can get a 3-day visitor passport Clipper Card, please see the SFMTA website linked here. You can get a Clipper Card on your Apple Wallet, and use it to access all Bay Area public transit!
- Public Transportation Tip: Use Google Maps! Map from where you are to the location, and select public transit. Google Maps will show you exactly where your line picks up and drops off, and will even show you where your bus is.
- Carpool! For those driving from outside the Bay Area, we encourage you to carpool! Reduce emissions, as well as gas and parking costs. Sign up to start or join a carpool, linked here.
- By bike:
 - Use your Lyft app to see where Lyft bike hubs are. The closest to the Argonaut is on Polk and N. Point Street. Scan to unlock, and scan once your ride is finished to end the ride! Alternatively, you can use your clipper card to pay.
 - May 17th is “Bike to Wherever Day”! Commute to the conference via bike. From The Argonaut, you can bike along The Embarcadero all the way to the Google Community Space.
 - Biking from home? Use this map, linked here, to find bike racks near our venues!
 - Closest to The General’s Residence: 3698 Laguna Street or 1401 Bay Street
 - Closest to the Google Community Space: Several around Mission and Steuart street, please refer to the map linked above.
 - Also near the Google Community Space, there is bike parking at the Golden Gateway Garage.
