THANK YOU RIVER HILLS: The young men from yesterday's eblast have been identified and are being dealt with appropriately. Security continues to ask, IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING. Call Security immediately, not a couple days later. And please let Security handle issues, do not take matters into your own hands.

FROM COMMUNITY CHURCH AT LAKE WYLIE...YOU DID IT AGAIN!

We delivered all the home goods you brought to us for the 1st Baptist Church of Swannanoa on April 1. The people there were a little overwhelmed by your love and generosity! They did not expect to receive a van filled to the top with items and a SUV that barely had room for the driver/passenger. There were two volunteers that met us when we arrived and they called for reinforcements to help put all the new products on their shelves when we left. It was awesome to once again see His love through your caring hearts! THANK YOU!!

The House Warming Boutique will open for their clientele soon. This church has a system to allow only families moving into their homes from nearby zip codes to "shop" at the boutique. They are very careful to be sure they are taking care of their neighbors and not being "used" by others that might take advantage of the situation. They shared with us how grateful the people were at Christmas when we assisted them in December...over 400 families were able to have some semblance of normalcy during this time to remember the birth of Christ.

We reported in December the challenges facing Swannanoa and Black Mountain because of the Hurricane Helene flood...and unfortunately the needle has not moved very far in these past 3 months. The folks at 1st Baptist reported that Buncombe County is much slower to issue building permits than some of the other mountain counties. Because their community remains in almost complete disrepair, 1st Baptist Church of Swannanoa is creating a 5-7 year plan to help their town residents. This is their estimate as to how long it will take them to recover. Think about that...if your son or daughter entered 6th grade before the storm last August they will graduate from high school before the town has fully recovered!

YOU DID REAL GOOD CHURCH!

And we will ask you to show God's love to these people again in the months to come. People that will likely never enter our building but can feel His presence through your loving, caring generosity!!

We also want to thank the community of River Hills. They partnered with us again in this endeavor and allowed us to deliver so many wonderful gifts to these people!

THANK YOU RIVER HILLS...YOU ARE AWESOME!!
