

College/Career/Education sites

General Information/Testing/Financial Aid

www.act.org - Source for information in taking the ACT test. Includes dates, places, and costs www.actstudent.org - A site for students taking the college admissions exam. Constantly updated, the site is student friendly and answers a lot of questions students have concerning taking the ACT test such as when, where, costs, and what to study.

fafsa.ed.gov - Allows students to view the free application for federal student aid online. Schools require this information to determine if you're eligible to receive money from federal grant, loan & work-study programs.

<http://www.pin.ed.gov> - Federal scholarship resource site. Register for a PIN number here.

www.finaid.org - Excellent financial aid resources - includes free scholarship search.

www.mnprivatecolleges.com - Information about Minnesota's Sixteen Private colleges is available at this site.

www.mnscu.edu - This page has great information on all MN. state, community and technical colleges. A student can use this web site to obtain information on admissions, degrees, activities; it also contains direct links to these schools

<http://www.collegeboard.com>

<http://www.wiredscholar.org> - College planning site

<http://www.collegeview.com> - Site that explores various colleges, including academic life and costs

www.fastweb.com - One of the best free scholarship search sites. Also has substantial other college info.

www.bls.gov - Bureau of Labor Statistics. This is an excellent site for occupational outlook searches. It includes stats, including information on salaries and opportunities in a variety of occupations.

<http://www.commonapp.org> - Some colleges have common application forms. This is a site for that.

<http://www.gocollege.com> - General Financial Aide information and calculators

<http://www.iseek.org/sv/index.jsp> - What do you want to do? Career and college information

<http://www.nasfaa.org> - National information on Financial aide