

Resources - Applying and Managing Exposition Permits

Exposition Permits - Exposition permits are defined as affairs held indoors or outdoors with the intent of promoting Pennsylvania products by educating those in attendance of the availability, nature and quality of Pennsylvania-produced G, AL and LK products in conjunction with suitable food displays, demonstrations and sales.

- Maximum of 100 days in any calendar year.
- Cannot exceed 30 consecutive days.
- Can sell by glass, bottle or case lots.
- Authorizes sales of your product in volumes permitted under the authority of your license.
- Tastings: No more than one 4 oz. sample malt, 1 oz. wine or 1 ½ oz. of spirits.
- May share a location with other licensees – each licensee needs a permit and its own separate space.

Log into PLCB+ (<https://plcbplus.pa.gov/pub/>).

Under Manage Events, the Limited Distillery license is displayed. On the far right is a link to Manage Events.

Click the Manage Events link and you are brought to the Exposition Permits page. From here you can manage existing events and add others.

To add a new event, click the Enter Event Date button and follow the on-screen instructions. Once you pay for the permit, click the Pay Fees & Notify the PLCB button.
