Best Short Movie

Judging criteria

Your short movie should

- be up to 4 minutes long including title and credits (Can be shorter)
- tell a story that holds the audience attention
- editing should ensure that
    - character dialogue can be easily heard
    - videos are clipped so that the finished product only includes important parts of the story (make sure bits where characters have finished acting are edited out)
- demonstrate camera work which shows an understanding of composition and shooting techniques (angles, movement, lighting framing)
- contain appropriate props, costumes and locations
- provide the opportunity to portray interesting and compelling characters
- added effects such as music, green screen, or other special effects that enhance the story
