

As promised, here's a nickel. I'll explain what it means later, keep reading to find out:

Dear <Given name>,

It seems everywhere I go in Charlotte I see a dentist or orthodontist.

With so many dentistry's in Charlotte you MUST stand out to bring in new patients, and as a successful business owner you know that marketing is the key.

Whether it be social media, local partnerships, events, Facebook ads or billboards, every business needs something to spread their name.

Once your name is out there, word of mouth will do the rest. Your capacity for new clients will only be limited by your availability.

To achieve word of mouth marketing, I have devised three separate funnels using physical AND digital sales secrets to master your client acquisition.

Within a month of using my funnels your increased traffic will be easily linked to an increase in profit.

Now, remember that nickel?

Save it, cherish it, frame it but remember that nickel is just a fraction of the money you will make with my marketing expertise.

You'll need to act quickly, with so many dentists in Charlotte you HAVE TO secure your market share to provide quality dental care for patients.

Let's set up a 20-minute call to talk about specifics and ideas, simply email me at michaelspitz05@gmail.com
