

General Questions and Answers

1. Can anyone be a member of the organization?

Ans: Yes, As per the organization's constitution anyone irrespective of caste, locality and language can be a member of the organization. Members need to volunteer in the event as per their choice. For family membership, only one needs to be a volunteer. Others can enjoy the benefits of membership.

2. Can members share opinions about event ideas?

Ans: Yes. We are a completely democratic organization open for ideas and opinions driven totally by its members. We have a feedback form for everyone on the organization's website which we look at periodically and reflect on new ideas.

3. As the name Stockholm Raja is related to Ganesh, does it indicate an association catering to the cultural events of Maharashtra?

Ans: No. This organization is open to everyone irrespective of one's ethnic origin, caste, color, race. The Organization's official language is English and the Organizing Committee currently has representation from different states, languages and localities. We have done several events so far, please refer to our website for more detail.

4. Can anyone become part of the event organizing committee?

Ans: Yes. First-year successful member volunteers can be part of the organizing committee for the following year.

5. Can anyone become office bearers of Stockholm Raja?

Ans: Based on successful organizing experience any member can be an office bearer of Stockholm Raja the following year.

6. Do we need to pay membership?

Ans: Its annual membership and its not refundable. It's compulsory to volunteer every member for Ganesh Utsav. Exceptions allowed in emergency and advance information.