

Rules&Intro

First Things first - My name is BluJay. I'm 33, which means I won't be following anyone under 21. This is a multimuse, multiverse, semi selective indie rp blog..

i. Basic roleplay etiquette applies here. IC ≠ OOC, no godmodding, metagaming, killing or severely injuring my character without permission, etc.

ii. I'm multiship and multiverse, as well as OC and AU friendly.

iii. Triggering topics reside on this blog. I will tag them as _____ tw or as _____ cw. But the topics change from fandom to fandom.

iv. NSFW will be present on this blog too, sometimes in different forms. But anything sexual/torturous, etc will be tagged nsfw cw for threads/words and for pictures. I can fade to black if my partner prefers it.

v. All relationships are set in their own verse unless otherwise specified/discussed. I'm all for polyships, so don't be afraid to suggest them to me.

vi. I'm a ship fanatic. I won't force ships. You can tell me if you ship our muses, there's a high chance I ship it too but ships are built on romance. I also do platonic ships, toxic ships, ot3 ships and crackship/Crossover ships, slow burn ships as well as one-sided relationships.

vii. If I ever tag you in something, say like a starter or a reply, I don't expect you to answer it. If you want to you can but I won't get upset/mad if you don't answer it.

viii. I don't rp on Discord for my own personal reasons, but I'll give out my discord if it's asked for so we can plot and or just talk.

ix. I have ADHD and Depression, so replies will be sporadic and sometimes will be shoved into the queue. So some days replies will come quicker and other days it'll be just a meme day.

x. I like memes and unprompted asks and both are always accepted. I don't really like plotting but if you have an idea I'll meet you halfway. Sometimes I have/will get random plot ideas and will post them and tag them as wishful thinking (wishlist), so feel free to check it out.

xi. State which muse you want me to respond with or you're probably going to get a muse you don't want/don't know anything about.

xii. I'm mostly iconless, but if you use icons/gif icons, etc., I will too. But don't sweat it too much if you don't, I'll still rp with you.

xiii. If I ever give you a muse you don't want, feel free to tell me. I will change it for you.

xiv. Try to reblog memes from the source not from me, it messes up my notifications.

Xv. If you're going to unfollow me then soft block me so we break mutuals. I will do the same if I ever unfollow you. You don't have to tell me why or that you are unfollowing me, just do so and we'll each go on our merry little way.
