Harvest Work Trade Roles and Compensation

There's something for everyone! Keep reading below for details on each of these roles:

- Label Maker
- Field Crew
- Digger
- Washer
- Rookie Divider
- Trained Divider
- Stamper

Label Maker

Handwrite labels that we'll use on our crates in the field. Take this role if you have neat handwriting only, please! Labels shown here are paper, but we'll be writing on plastic wrap-around tags.

Experience required: None

Compensation: 10 tubers of our choice in 10 different varieties ($130 value)

Delivery: Immediately - take tubers home the same day

Field Crew

Cut down plants, remove field stakes, roll up support netting, pull up weed barrier mats, begin digging tubers if time allows.

Experience required: None

Compensation: 10 tubers of our choice in 10 different varieties ($130 value)

Delivery: Immediately - take tubers home the same day

Digger

Use a potato fork or pitchfork (provided for you) to lift dahlia clumps out of the ground. This is perhaps the most physically strenuous (but satisfying!) job.

Experience required: None

Compensation: 10 tubers of our choice in 10 different varieties ($130 value)

Delivery: Immediately - take tubers home the same day

Washer

Wash the dirt off the clumps after they come up out of the field using a garden hose and a nozzle. We'll provide long waterproof gloves, a waterproof apron, and waterproof boots (but bring your own tall waterproof boots if you have them)

Experience required: None

Compensation: 10 tubers of our choice in 10 different varieties ($130 value)

Delivery: Immediately - take tubers home the same day

Rookie Divider

Split washed dahlia clumps into individual tubers. Expert level training will be provided during your shift, No prior experience required

In exchange for your help, we'll be providing you with a free version of our "dividing dahlias" workshop, a $100 value. Your expert lesson is your compensation - there'll be no tubers to take home with you.

If you really get the hang of it, we may invite you to sign up for another shift as a trained divider afterward, where you can take home a $100 voucher for each shift.

Experience required: None

Compensation: Expert level training on dividing dahlias ($100 value)

Delivery: Immediately (the lesson is your takehome!)

Trained Divider

Split washed dahlia clumps into individual tubers. Must pass a brief skills test before your first shift, or complete a Rookie Divider shift with our approval to return as a trained divider..

If you have no experience and want to learn: Sign up for a rookie shift

If you do have experience and want a role as a trained divider:

1. Sign up for a shift at this link.
2. Arrive at the farm the day of your shift.
3. If you pass the skills test*, you'll join the rest of the crew dividing clumps, and we'll give you a $100 voucher at the end of your shift.

*If dividing isn't for you, that doesn't mean we don't like you!! You're welcome to stay and help us as a washer or stamper, or whatever we most need that day, and you'll get to take home the standard compensation for general shifts rather than a voucher..

Experience required: Yes - show us you know what you're doing

Compensation: $100 voucher for anything in our tuber catalog

Delivery: You'll receive your voucher at your shift. Our full catalog will be restocked on October 30th. Place your order between October 30th-November 2nd. Pickup Nov 8/9th or take shipment delivery week of November 9th.

Divider orders come with a $7 shipping deposit. If you pick up, we'll return your deposit then. If you take shipment, this fee helps us offset the cost of delivery.

Stamper

Individually label each tuber using permanent ink and a custom stamp. This job is tougher than it sounds - it requires good manual dexterity and attention to detail. Your stamp is what our home gardeners will use to determine what variety a tuber is when they receive their order.

Experience required: None

Compensation: 10 tubers of our choice in 10 different varieties ($130 value)

Delivery: Immediately - take tubers home the same day
