3 DAYS HORSE RIDING TOUR

Horseback riding to Son Kul lake

Lush meadows, rolling hills, and crystal-clear lake - all about Son Kul Lake. It offers a unique and thrilling riding experience in the spectacular mountains of the Tien Shan range. Whether you're an experienced rider or just getting started, a trip to Son Kul is a great way to enjoy the great outdoors.

The highlights of the tour:

- Immerse into the Nomadic life
- meditate watching Son Kul Lake
- meeting Nomad families
- galloping along the shore
- watching amazing sunsets and much more...

Just say "Chu!" ("Go") to your horse!

PROGRAM OF THE TOUR

Day 1: Kyzart – Kilemche

Tour starts at Kyzart village where you will meet your horses and a team of horseman. First, the way will ride through a small gorge called Chaar Archa. On the way, we will have a picnic by the racing river. By following the trail, you will get to Kilemche Jailoo. The name means "like a carpet," and this swathe of grass covers whole mountain ranges. Dinner and sleep will be in a nice local family's yurt. It will be the best chance to get to know about Kyrgyz people and taste traditional foods.

4-6 hours

 Lunch/Dinner

Day 2: Kilemche - Song-Kul Lake

In the morning, we continue our horseback riding to the Jalgyz Karagai Pass, which is 3400 meters above sea level. On the top, there is a breathtaking view of incredible mountains and alpine beauty Song Kul Lake. Song Kul is the second biggest lake at the altitude of 3016 meters on the alpine lush meadow terrain. On the way, stop at a local nomad's yurt to have lunch. Then ride along the shore of the lake. Perfect terrain to gallop or trot. Arrive at yurt camp and enjoy free time to wander around or take a swim at the lake. The temperature of the water is cold enough to freshen up. Night and dinner will be in yurts. Song-Kul is the best place to see the sky full of stars.
