

If I can share anything about 2021, it's that it is a year where you can thrive if you lead from balanced, grounded, collaborative energy and crash if you lead from pushing, forcing or doing it all alone for fear that you're going to lose something if you let others in.

Learning how to operate from your Feminine energy in a way that integrates with daily life is really important, not just for yourself but also for your family and career success.

It's not about abandoning your masculine, but more integrating it in a way that serves your Soul's true desires.
