Week 5: Where Do We Go from Here?

Your group's facilitator has already been assigned for the first six months that your group will be meeting. After that, the group will decide who will facilitate next, and determine a rotation. Ideally, everyone should take a turn.

1. Will the group have music? How? Who?
2. Will homework be done prior to the meeting or at the meeting?
3. Are children invited? If not, will your group arrange for babysitting?
4. Will you have food? If so, who's bringing it? Will there be a schedule?
5. Where will the meetings be held? Will there be a rotation?
 - a. Suggestion: Don't change the location more than once a month.
6. Who will be acting as the group's "secretary" to email or call people to remind them about meetings, cancel a meeting, general communication, etc.?
7. If some of our members are missing tonight, how will we let them know the location of our first meeting?
