

Essential Question: Is access to water a basic human right?

Overview of the week: Below you will find all the assignments that you need to complete for the week. Each lesson should take you about 30 mins to complete. It might take you a little bit less or a little longer. Use this as a way to help you organize your time this week.

WEEK May 4-May 8	Lesson #1	Lesson #2	Lesson #3
Science Sub Question: Looking at the Earth's Water Cycle: How does temperature influence the processes of evaporation and condensation?	- Conduct experiment A: Evaporation and record data in notebook	- Conduct Experiment B: Condensation and record observations in notebook	After completing experiments, answer the supporting questions for each experiment.
Social Studies Sub Question: What are human rights?	☐ Watch video ☐ The Story of Human Rights Worksheet *Your copy is on google classroom	☐ Read Universal Declaration of Human Rights and complete organizer on bottom *Your copy is on google classroom	☐ Watch video & read Water Inequality article. *Your copy is on google classroom
English Language Arts EQ: Is access to water a basic human right?	➤ Mini-project on Sudan geography & climate	➤ Read chapters 3-6 in A Long Walk to Water	➤ Writing prompts: (2) #1 A Long Walk to Water #2 Choose from options 2-4
Math: How do we solve equations without using models	- Operations with positive and negative numbers video Review operations with positive and negative numbers - Writing number	- Solving equations video - Solving equations Lesson	Solving Equation practice

	sentences
--	-----------	--	--