Salt River Project is a public water and power utility serving more than 2 million Arizonans. It is governed by an elected board that has raised rates on captive customers year after year while wasting scarce water on polluting power generation. The time for change is now. Clean energy advocates have already won 6 of 14 board seats, and a majority is within reach. With fewer than 10,000 people deciding most SRP elections, every vote matters. Awareness alone isn't enough. Arizona Power PAC is directly supporting the candidates who can deliver accountability and a clean energy majority on April 7th.
