

Question text	Question type	How do you know it's the type	Rephrasing the question
The passage suggests that the proliferation of ragwort was particularly ill-timed because it	Inference	"suggests"	The expansion of ragwort happened at the wrong time because
The passage implies which of the following about the problems ragwort poses to dairy farmers?	Inference	"implies"	The passage suggests which of the following about ragwort's harmful effects on dairy farmers.
Which of the following, if true, helps explain the apparent paradox in the statement above?	Critical reasoning	"paradox"	Which of the following can help explain the seeming contradiction?
The passage suggests that if advertisers had more frequently purchased advertising in African American newspapers, then which of the following might have resulted?	Inference	"Suggests" "If...might have resulted"	what would happen if advertisers advertised more inside the African American newspaper?
The author of the passage suggests which of the following about the "advertisers" (line 3) mentioned in the passage?
If the statements in the passage are true, then which of the following must on the basis of them be true?
It can be inferred from the passage that which of the following is true of the surface waters in the current Antarctic environment?

The passage suggests that Martinson believes which of the following about deep waters in the Antarctic region?
According to the passage , which of the following is true about the sea ice that surrounds the Antarctic continent?
Which of the following, if true, most strengthens the argument?
The passage is primarily concerned with discussing the
The information in the passage suggests that which of the following would most likely result from a student's having studied the Roman classics under a typical sixteenth-century teacher?
Which of the following, if true, would most seriously weaken the assertion made in the passage concerning what a modern reader cannot know?
In explaining the "new role" (line 7) that goose bumps in humans may have acquired, the author assumes which of the following?
Which of the following best describes the primary function of the next-to-last sentence ("Like . . . music")?
The passage as a whole can best be described as doing which of the following?
It can be inferred that the "present-day intellectuals” (line 12) believe that Each of the following is mentioned in the passage as an element of Douglass’ ideology EXCEPT

Which of the following, if true, would be additional evidence to suggest that hummingbirds are attracted to the red flowers and hawkmoths to the white flowers of the scarlet gilia?
It can be inferred that the author of the passage would agree with which of the following about the origin of UHECRs that reach Earth?
In the context of the author’s argument, the last sentence performs which of the following functions?
Which of the following statements about women cyclists is supported by the passage?
Which of the following does the passage suggest about pioneer women cyclists?
Which of the following best describes the function of the second sentence (“Although . . . population”)?
Which of the following would serve as an example of “concomitant structural features” (line 13) that might disadvantage a snail of the rarer form?
The second paragraph of the passage is primarily concerned with offering possible reasons why

Which of the following accurately describes the relationship between the evolutionary and developmental theories discussed in the passage?
It can be inferred from the passage that a predominantly sinistral snail species might stay predominantly sinistral for each of the following reasons EXCEPT for
The conclusion is properly drawn if which of the following is assumed ?

Emotional responses in humans can be triggered by thermoregulatory mechanisms.