

FHAO Film Analysis: The Eye of the Beholder

1. How are “different” and “normal” defined in the society depicted?
2. Who decides their definitions of “normal” and “different”?
3. Was it helpful or harmful to conform to fit in within the society depicted?
4. How did the society in the story answer the question: What do you do with a difference?
5. What correlations can you identify between the video and actual historical events?